SENATE COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE SOUNDNESS OF PAROLE SYSTEM

Mr. SCARLETT offered the following resolution, which was twice read:

In the Senate of Pennsylvania, May 6, 1937.

Whereas, A heinous sex crime was committed recently in Chester County by a person paroled from the Pennsylvania Industrial School at Huntingdon who has since been convicted of this crime: and

Whereas, The commission of such crimes raises in the minds of the public the soundness of a parole system which releases criminals from confinement only to perpetrate crimes of a similar nature; and

Whereas, A commission has been created at this Session of the General Assembly with power to make investigation respecting the probation and paroling of persons guilty of crime; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That the Senate of the Commonwealth hereby requests the Commission created by the Act of March 9, 1937, Act No. 11, authorized to make an investigation of the practice and procedure in the courts, to specifically investigate the facts and circumstances surrounding the parole of the defendent in the case recited in the preamble hereof.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Commission created by said act.

Mr. SCARLETT. Mr. President, I move that Rule 39, which requires resolutions to be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read

The PRESIDENT. Is there any objection?

The Chair hears none.

On the question,

SENATE

MONDAY, May 10, 1937.

The Senate met at 9 o'clock p. m.

The President (Lieutenant Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

PRAYER

Thou Infinite Spirit, always and altogether good, who, in holy love, dost create, sustain and order all things we exalt ourselves, as with grateful praise we acclaim Thee our Father who art in Heaven.

We need Thee every hour; yet, as we face great issues, great opportunities and great responsibilities, at this hour we would not let Thee go except Thou bless us.

Give us large measure of Thy holy mind. Impart to us a spirit of accord. Endue us with a will to agree with that wisdom which is peaceable and easy to be entreated.

May we be sensible to Thy available grace, that we may show forth the glory of the Lord. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT—A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

HOUSE MESSAGE

Resolution requesting legislative commission under Act No. 11 session of 1937, to investigate circumstances surrounding parole of defendant in Chester County sex crime.

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced He also informed the Senate that the House has concurred in resolution from the Senate, as follows:

In the Senate of Pennsylvania, May 6, 1937.

Whereas, A heinous sex crime was committed recently in Chester County by a person paroled from the Pennsylvania Industrial School at Huntingdon who has since been convicted of this crime; and

Whereas, The commission of such crimes raises in the minds of the public the soundness of a parole system which releases criminals from confinement only to perpetrate crimes of a similar nature; and

Whereas, A commission has been created at this Session of the General Assembly with power to make investigations respecting the probation and paroling of persons guilty of crime; therefore be it

Resolved, If the House of Representatives concur that the Senate of the Commonwealth hereby requests the Commission created by the Act of March 9, 1937, Act. No. 11, authorized to make an investigation of the practice and procedure in the courts, to specifically investigate the facts and circumstances surrounding the parole of the defendant in the case recited in the preamble hereof.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Commission created by said act.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 425, as follows:

An Act for the protection of the health and welfare of women and minors by regulating under the police power the minimum fair wages which shall be paid by employers providing for wage boards and defining the powers and duties of such boards and of the Department of Labor and Industry imposing duties on employers providing for directory and mandatory orders on employers and the publication of the names of employers who do not comply with such orders exempting certain persons from the provisions of this act and providing penalties

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That

Section 1 Factual Background Women and minors are employed in some occupations in trade and industry in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for wages unreasonably low and not fairly commensurate with the value of the services rendered Such a condition is contrary to public interest and public policy commands its regulation Women and minors employed in such industries are not as a class on a level of equality in bargaining with their employers in regard to minimum fair wage standards and "freedom of contract" as applied to their relations with their employers is illusory Judged by any reasonable standard wages in such industries are often found to bear no relation to the fair value of the services rendered Women and minors employed for gain in such occupations are peculiarly subject to the overreaching of inefficient harsh or ignorant employers and under unregulated competition where no adequate machinery exists for the effective regulation and maintenance of minimum fair wage standards the standards such as exist tend to be set by the least conscionable employers In the absence of any effective minimum fair wage rates for women and minors the constant lowering of wages by unscrupulous employers constitutes a serious form of unfair competition against other employers reduces the purchasing power of the workers and threatens the stability of industry The evils of oppressive unreasonable and unfair wages as they affect women and minors employed in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania are such as to render imperative the exercise of the police power of the Commonwealth for the protection of industry and of the women and minors employed therein and of the public interest of the community at large in their health and well being

Section 2 Definitions as used in this act

(1) "Secretary" shall mean the Secretary of Labor and Industry

(2) "Department" shall mean the Department of Labor and Industry

(3) "Wage board" shall mean a board created as provided in this act

(4) "Women" shall mean a female of twenty-one years or over

(7) "A fair wage" shall mean a wage fairly and reasonably commensurate with the value of the service or class of service rendered

Section 3 Powers of Investigation The department shall have power

(1) To investigate and ascertain the wages of women and minors employed in any occupation in the Commonwealth

(2) To enter the place of business or employment of any employer of women and minors in any occupation for the purpose of

(a) Examining and inspecting any and all books registers payrolls and other records of any employer of women or minors that in any way appertain to or have a bearing upon the wages of any such women or minors and

(b) Ascertaining whether the orders of the department have been and are being complied with

(3) To require from such employer full and correct statements in writing at such times as the department may deem necessary of the wages paid to all women and minors in his employment

Section 4 Investigation of Occupation The Department shall have power and it shall be the duty of the department on the petition of fifty or more residents of the Commonwealth to cause an investigation to be made by any duly authorized representative of the wages being paid to women or minors in any occupation to ascertain whether any substantial number of women or minors in such occupation are receiving wages which are less than sufficient to maintain their health or efficiency If on the basis of information in its possession with or without a special investigation the department is of the opinion that any substantial number of women or minors in any occupation or occupations are receiving such wages the secretary shall appoint a wage board to report upon the establishment of minimum fair wages for such women or minors in such occupation or occupations

Section 5 Basis of Fair Wage In establishing a minimum fair wage for any service or class of service under this act the secretary and the wage board without being bound by any technical rules of evidence or procedure may

(1) Take into account the cost of living and all other relevant circumstances affecting the value of the service or class of service rendered

(2) Be guided by like considerations as would guide a court in a suit for the reasonable value of services rendered where services are rendered at the request of an employer without contract as to the amount of the wage to be paid

(3) Consider the wages paid in the Commonwealth for work of like or comparable character by employers who voluntarily maintain minimum fair wage standards

Section 6 Wage Boards

(1) A wage board shall be composed of not more than three representatives of employers an equal number of representatives of employes and an equal number of disinterested persons representing the public one of whom shall be designated by the secretary as chairman The secretary shall appoint the members of such wage board the representatives of the employers and employes to be selected so far as practicable from nominations submitted by employers or employer representatives for employer members and by employes for employe members in such occupation or occupations Two-thirds of the members of such wage board shall constitute a quorum and the recommendations or report of such wage board shall require a vote of not less than a majority of all its members The members of a wage board shall be entitled to compensation at the rate of not exceeding ten dollars per day for each meeting attended by them or each day actually spent in the work of the board They shall also be paid their reasonable and necessary traveling and other expenses while engaged in performance of their duties The department shall make and establish from time to time reasonable rules and regulations not inconsistent with this act governing the selection of a wage board and its mode of procedure

(2) The department shall present to a wage board promptly upon its organization all the evidence and information in its possession relating to the wages of women and minor workers in the occupation or occupations for which the wage board was appointed and all other information which is deemed relevant to the establishment of a minimum fair wage for such women and minors and shall cause to be brought before the board any witnesses whom the department deems material A wage board may summon other witnesses or call upon the department to furnish additional information to aid it in its deliberation

(3) A wage board shall have power to administer oaths and to require by subpoena the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of all books records and other evidence relative to any matters under investigation Such subpoenas shall be signed and issued by a member of the wage board and shall be served and have the same effect as if issued by the department under the authority vested in it by the act approved the ninth day of April one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws 177) and designated as the Administrative Code of 1929 A wage board shall have power to cause depositions of witnesses residing within or without the Commonwealth to be taken in the manner prescribed for like depositions in civil actions in the court of common pleas

(4) Within sixty days of its organization a wage board shall submit a report including its recommendations as to minimum fair wage standards for the women or minors in the occupation or occupations the wage standards of which the wage board was appointed to investigate If its report is not submitted within such time the secretary may appoint a new wage board as provided in clause (1) of this section

(5) A wage board may classify employments in any occupation according to the nature of the service rendered and recommend appropriate minimum fair wage rates for different classes of employment A wage board may also recommend minimum fair wage rates varying with localities if in the judgment of the wage board conditions make such local differentiation proper and do not effect an unreasonable discrimination against any locality

(6) A wage board may recommend a suitable scale of rates for learners and apprentices in any occupation or occupations which scale of learners' and apprentices' rates may be less than the regular minimum fair wage rates recommended for experienced women or minor workers in such occupation or occupations

(7) In addition to the report a wage board may recommend such reasonable regulations as it may deem appropriate to safeguard the minimum fair wage standards recommended in its report Such regulations may among other things define and govern learners and apprentices their rates number proportion or length of service piece rates or their relation to time rates overtime or part-time rates bonuses or special pay for special or extra work deductions for board lodging apparel or other items or services supplied by the employer and other special conditions or circumstances and in view of the diversities and complexities of different occupations and the dangers of evasion and nullification without departing from the basic minimum rates recommended by wage board the board may provide for such modifications or reductions of or additions to such rates in or for such special cases or classes of cases as those herein enumerated as the board may find appropriate to safeguard the basic minimum rates established

Section 7 Action on Report of Wage Board

(1) A wage board shall submit its report and recommendations to the department which shall within ten days thereafter accept or reject such report During such ten days the secretary or his representative may confer with the wage board which may make such changes in the report or recommendations as it may deem fit If the report is rejected the department shall re-submit the matter to the same wage board or to a new wage board to be appointed as provided in clause (1) of section six If the report is accepted it shall be published together with such of the regulations recommended by the board and with such modifications and amendments as the department may approve The department shall give notice of a public hearing to be held by the secretary or his representative not sooner than fifteen nor later than thirty days after such publication at which all persons in favor of or opposed to the recommendations contained in such report or in such proposed regulations may be heard

(2) Within ten days after such hearing the department shall approve or disapprove the report of the wage board If the report is disapproved the department may re-submit the matter to the same wage board or to a new wage board If the report is approved the department shall make a directory order which shall define minimum fair wage rates in the occupation or occupations as recommended in the report of the wage board and shall include the regulations as approved by the department

Section 8 Special Licenses For any occupation for which minimum fair wage rates have been established the department may cause to be issued to a woman or minor including a learner or apprentice whose earning capacity is impaired by age or physical or mental deficiency or injury a special license authorizing employment at such wages less than such minimum fair wage rates and for such period of time as shall be fixed by the department and stated in the license

Section 9 Order Made Mandatory If at any time after a directory minimum fair wage order has been in effect for three months the department is of the opinion based upon a statement of reasons in writing made by the department that the persistent non-observance of such order by one or more employers is a threat to the maintenance of fair minimum wage standards in any occupation or occupations the department may give notice of its intention to make such order mandatory and of a public hearing to be held not sooner than fifteen nor later than thirty days after such publication at which all persons in favor of or opposed to a mandatory order may be heard by the secretary or his representative After such hearing the department may make an order making the previous directory order or any part thereof mandatory and shall publish such order

Section 10 Publication of Names of Employers Not Observing Order If the department has reason to believe that any employer is not observing the provisions of any directory or mandatory order it may on fifteen days' notice summon such employer to appear before it to show cause why the name of such employer should not be published as having failed to observe the provisions of such order After such hearing and the finding of non-observance of such order by the secretary or his representative the department may cause to be published in a newspaper or newspapers published and circulating within the Commonwealth or in such other manner as it may deem appropriate the name of any such employer or employers as having failed in the respects stated to observe the provisions of such order of the department neither the secretary nor any authorized representative of the department nor any newspaper publisher proprietor editor nor any employe thereof shall be liable to an action civil or criminal for publishing the name of any employer as provided for in this article unless guilty of wilful misrepresentation

Section 11 Reconsideration of Minimum Fair Wage Order (1) At any time after a minimum fair wage order has been in effect for one year or more whether during such period it has been directory or mandatory the department may on its own motion and shall on a petition of fifty or more residents of the Commonwealth reconsider the minimum fair wage rates set therein and reconvene the same wage board or appoint a new wage board as provided in clause (1) of section six to recommend whether or not the rate or rates contained in such order should be modified The report of such wage board shall be dealt with in the manner prescribed in section seven of this act provided that if the order under reconsideration has theretofore been made mandatory in whole or in part by the department then the department in making any new order or confirming any old order shall have power to declare to what extent such order shall be directory and to what extent mandatory

(2) The department may from time to time propose such modifications of or additions to any regulations included in any directory or mandatory order of the department without reference to a wage board as may be deemed appropriate to effectuate the purposes of this act provided such proposed modifications or additions are reasonable and could legally have been included in the original order and shall give notice of a public hearing to be held by the secretary or his representative not less than fifteen days after such publication at which all persons may be heard in respect to such proposed modifications or additions After such hearing the department may make an order putting into effect such of the proposed modifications of or additions to the regulations as it may deem appropriate and if the order of which the regulations form a part has theretofore been made mandatory in whole or in part then the department in making any new order shall have the power to declare to what extent such order shall be directory and to what extent mandatory

Section 12 Review of Orders

(1) All questions of fact arising under this act except as otherwise herein provided shall be decided by the secretary or his representative and there shall be no appeal from the decision on any such question of fact but there shall be a right of review by the court of common pleas from any order ruling or holding on any question of law included or embodied in any decision of the secretary or his representative or order of the department

(2) Any such review shall be by the Court of Common pleas of Dauphin County Any person aggrieved by the decision of the secretary or his representative or by any order of the department may petition said court for such a review within thirty days after notice of such decision or order A copy of such petition shall be filed with the department which filing shall constitute service Within thirty days after service of the petition the department shall file with the prothonotary of said court a transcript of the record of the proceedings duly certified over the seal of the department which record shall include all papers on file and all evidence taken including stenographic notes of testimony The cost of said transcript at twenty-five cents per folio and one dollar for certification shall be entered as part of the record costs to be paid as the court may direct

(3) The court upon application of either party shall fix a time and place for argument After argument and review of the record and testimony the court may sustain modify or reverse the decision of the secretary or his representative or the order of the department as in its judgment the law may warrant

Section 13 Duty of Employer Every employer of women and minor workers shall keep a true and accurate record of the hours worked by each and the wages paid by him to each and shall furnish to the department or its duly authorized agent upon demand a sworn statement of the same Such records shall be open to inspection by any duly authorized agent of the department at any reasonable time Every employer subject to a minimum fair wage order whether directory or mandatory shall keep a copy of such order posted in a conspicious place in every room in which women or minors are employed Employers shall on request be furnished copies of order without charge Employers shall permit any duly authorized agent of the department to question any employe of such employer in the place of employment and during work hours in respect to the wages paid to and the hours worked by such employe or other employe

Section 14 Penalties

(1) Any employer and his agent or the officer or agent of any corporation who discharges or in any other manner discriminates against any employe because such employe has served or is about to serve on a wage board or has testified or is about to testify before any wage board or in any other investigation or proceeding under or related to this act or because such employer believes that said employe may serve on any wage board or may testify before any wage board or in any investigation or proceeding under this act shall upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars and in default of the payment of such fine and costs shall be sentenced to imprisonment for not less than ten days nor more than thirty days

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill 640, as follows:

An Act to encourage the making and maintaining of agreements concerning wages hours and conditions of employment between employers and employes by their representatives and the settlement of controversies concerning the same by mediation and voluntary arbitration conferring powers of mediation and arbitration of such controversies on the Department of Labor and Industry

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That

Section 1 This act shall be known and may be cited as "Pennsylvania Labor Mediation Act"

Section 2 It is the public policy of the Commonwealth to encourage employers and employes by their representatives to make and maintain agreements concerning wages hours and conditions of employment and to settle all controversies arising out of the application of such agreements

Section 3 When used in this act

(a) The term "department" shall mean the Department of Labor and Industry

(b) The term "employer" includes an employer and any person acting directly or indirectly on behalf of or in the interest of an employer with the employer's knowledge or ratification but a labor organization or any officer or agent thereof shall be considered an employer only with respect to individuals employed by such organization

(c) The term "employe" shall include any employe and shall not be limited to the employes of a particular employer unless the act explicitly states otherwise and shall include any individual whose work has ceased as a consequence of or in connection with any current labor dispute or because of any unfair labor practice as provided in the Act of 1937 entitled "Pennsylvania Labor Relations Act" This term however shall not include any individual taking the place of any employe whose work has ceased as aforesaid nor shall it include any individual employed by his parent or spouse or in the domestic service of any person in the home of the employer

(d) The term "representatives" is not limited to individuals but shall include labor organizations and individual representatives need not themselves be employed by and a labor organization serving as a representative need not be limited in membership to employes of the employer whose employes are represented

Section 4 The parties or either party to a controversy between employers and employes may invoke the services of the department or the department may proffer its services in a controversy over the making maintaining or the application of an agreement between employers and employes concerning wages hours or conditions of employment Whenever the services of the department have been invoked by any party to a controversy or when the department has proffered its services the department shall promptly put itself in communication with the parties to such controversy and shall use its best efforts by mediation through a representative of the Secretary of Labor and Industry to bring them in agreement

Section 5 For the further purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act the Department at the request of both the employer and the employes may set up a commission or panel whose members shall serve in such controversy without pay

Section 6 Whenever a controversy shall arise between an employer and his employes which is not settled either in conference between representatives of the parties or through mediation in the manner provided in the preceding sections such controversy may by agreement of the parties be submitted to arbitration one person to be selected by the employer one person to be selected by the employes and a third to be selected by the representatives of the employer and employes and in the event of any such appointment or selection not being made upon the request of the parties in the controversy the Department may select the third person to arbitrate the matter submitted provided however that the failure or refusal of either party to submit a controversy to arbitration shall not be construed as a violation of the policy or purpose of this act or of any provision thereof nor shall failure or refusal to arbitrate constitute a basis for any action at law or suit in equity

Section 7 Nothing in this act shall be construed so as to interfere with impede or diminish in any way the right of employes to strike or engage in other concerted activities

Section 8 If any clause sentence paragraph or part of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances shall for any reason be adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid such judgment shall not affect impair or invalidate the remainder of this act and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances but shall be confined in its operation to the clause sentence paragraph or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered and to the person or circumstances involved It it hereby declared to be the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such invalid provisions not been included herein

Section 9 All acts or parts of acts whether general special or local inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed Provided that this act shall not apply to any controversy involving unfair labor practices or the selection of collective bargaining representatives provided for in the Act of 1937 entitled "Pennsylvania Labor Relations Act"

Section 10 This act shall take effect immediately upon its final enactment

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmtive.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 492, (House Bill No. 390), as follows:

An Act relating to the performance of industrial work in homes regulating and in certain cases prohibiting industrial homework imposing duties restrictions and liabilities on industrial home-workers and on persons partnerships associations and corporations directly or indirectly furnishing materials and articles to home-workers for manufacture or work thereon requiring permits and home-workers' certificates and prescribing the fees therefor conferring powers and imposing duties on the Department of Labor and Industry and prescribing penalties

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same as follows

Section 1 Legislative Purpose This State has long recognized that employment of men women and children under conditions detrimental to health and general welfare results in injury not only to the workers immediately affected but also to the public interest as a whole This recognition has produced a broad program of regulatory legislation to conserve the public welfare The continuance of an unregulated industrial homework system in this State runs counter to that program since it is usually accompanied by excessively low wages long and irregular hours and unsanitary or otherwise inadequate working quarters Employment of young children in industrial homework occupations is frequent but effective supervision of this child labor evil has not been attainable under present statutes The dangerous consequences of this system may fall upon the consumer of its products as well as upon the men and women who are its work force The preservation of the system moreover endangers the protection of the workers in factory industries which being forced to compete with industrial homework are under pressure to relax the established safeguards of life health and the public welfare After study of experience and reported investigations the legislature is convinced that industrial homework must eventually be abolished and that during a period of adjustment it must be strictly controlled in the interest of the wage-earners of this State and of the public at large This act is the product of that conviction

Section 2 Short Title This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Industrial Homework Law"

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL No. 932

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 932, House Bill No. 185, entitled:

An Act to provide for an additional law judge of the court of common pleas in the twenty-first judicial district.

passed finally.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

And the question recurring.

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, this bill is to create another common pleas judge for Schuylkill County. When this bill was defeated last week, one of the sponsors of the bill was interrogated as to whether another judge was needed in Schulykill County and the incidental expense placed upon the County. It was said at that time that they believed another judge was necessary because of the increased work. I have a letter that was endorsed by the judges of Schuylkill County answering some questions coming up before the Senate at that time. I am advised in this letter that the work of the Courts in Schuylkill County shows no increase during the last thirty years; that the average age of the judges is now forty-nine years, and that the question of an additional judge for Schuylkill County during the last fifteen years was never suggested, when the judges were older in years than they are at the present time. The work in Schuylkill County is up to date in every respect. The letter states:

"To sum up: in both criminal and civil courts no case must be postponed because of press of business. The cases available for trial are insufficient to require the court to conduct jury trials on all the days that are allotted to jury trials on the court calendar. If the court was obliged to sit on extra days, or if cases could not be reached because of press of business, there might be some reason for an additional judge. As the figures show, the situation is such that no additional judge is necessary, and an additional judge could not expedite the trial of cases.

"In the other work of the court, exactly the same situation obtains. We have 5 weeks allotted to equity and argument court. That is a possible 30 days. Our experience has shown that a maximum of 10 days is sufficient to dispose of the equity and argument list. The number of cases assigned to me for writing opinions after argument (and here again my experience is typical) shows that this work has remained constant. In 1929, I was assigned 47 cases from the argument list; in 1930, 43; in 1931, 63; in 1932, 35; in 1933, 55; in 1934, 37; in 1935, 58; and in 1936, 59. At the present writing, my desk is clear of all pending matters.

"Another indication of the amount of work of the courts will be found in the annual reports of the county controller. Increased business means increased costs, because jurors, witnesses and per diem employees must be paid."

These reports show that the costs for the year 1936 as compared to the year 1935 show a decrease of approximately $3,000 and between the years 1936 and 1934 the decrease amounts to about $12,000; in other words, instead of an increase in business in the courts of Schuylkill County there is a considerable decrease.

Never before was there any suggestion that a new judge was necessary. The three common pleas judges are not complaining that they are not overworked. They are kept busy but not so busy that the administration of justice is delayed, and he says further in this letter: "Even if the business had measurably increased, which it has not, we should be able to handle it. With it actually decreasing, there should be no doubt on this score. It is my honest and considered judgment, he concludes, 'based entirely on my experience on the bench and on the available facts, that there is absolutely no need for a fourth common pleas judge in Schuylkill County, and that it would be indefensible to put the State and county to the unnecessary expense which the creation of an additional judgeship would entail."

I think the Senate should vote against this bill.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, before I agreed to move for the reconsideration of this bill, I asked for some information concerning the matter, and I have been presented with a communication from people in Schuylkill County who are interested in the same facts, and it may also be interesting to the Senator from Tioga. I have before me a resolution adopted by the Schuylkill County Bar Association in 1934. It deals with the necessity of having an additional judge. Mr. W. C. Devitt presented a memorandum relating to this matter as follows:

"The work of our courts has so increased that our Judges are constantly engaged in trial court and in argument court, leaving to them very limited time for preparation of opinions and consideration of other important court work, though they are constantly and actively employed in their work. For some years, our Orphans' Court Judge has been called in almost every term to assist in our trial court, but even this has not relieved our courts. We are satisfied the time has arrived when our county shall have an additional Common Pleas Court Judge, and we recommend that a committee of this Association be appointed to secure, at the next Session of our Legislature, such legislation as will provide this additional judge; also that this committee shall carry on all other work necessary to secure this legislation.

"On motion of Mr. Duffy, seconded by Mr. Brenneman, the foregoing memorandum was adopted and ordered spread upon the minutes.

"On motion, duly seconded, the Chancellor was authorized to appoint a committee of five members of the next Bar to secure favorable legislation at the next Session of the Legislature."

That does not go very well with the statements that the Senator from Tioga read, that for the past thirty years the courts have not been behind in their work, and that no suggestion for an additional judge has been made by the other judges.

I suggest that the Senator from Tioga read the following excerpts from articles in various newspapers of Schuylkill County. The Pottsville Republican under date of June 29, 1934, under a heading "Civil Court is Three Years Back," states:

"The action of the Schulykill County Law Association on Monday in passing a resolution favoring the naming of another judge in the Common Pleas Court of the county has created considerable comment.

"The work in the local courts has tripled during the last half dozen years, especially on the civil side of the court. Criminal court has been relieved to a certain extent by the assistance of Judge Gangloff of the Orphans' Court.

"It is pointed out that at the present time there are over two hundred cases ready for trial on the civil side of the court. The highest number of cases ever disposed of at any one term of civil court is 10, with half that number being completed by jury trials the remainder ending in verdicts by agreement, etc.

"On that basis it would require 20 terms of court to dispose of the pending work, if no additional litigations were put on the list, and when it is said that there are only five terms of civil court each year, it can be readily ascertained that the court are more than 3½ years behind.

"M. M. Burke, Chancellor of the Schuylkill County Bar Association stated that in accordance with the resolution adopted by the Association on Monday, that a committee of attorneys will be named to go to Harrisburg to urge the Legislature to enact the law that will give the County an additional Law Judge."

I also refer him to the Pottsville Republican of June 25, 1934,

"New County Judge Wanted"

and the Pottsville Journal, under date of June 26, 1934,

"Want Additional Judge"

I suggest that the Senator from Tioga look at the trial lists and he will find that there are in Schuylkill County some 357 cases on the dockets, extending back as far as 1934, which are undisposed of; that 55 cases on the list have been previously listed two or more times; that 36 cases have been listed each term for a year without trial or disposition, and that in the last term of court, January 1937, only five cases were disposed of.

Mr. President, it is quite evident that if the Bar Association or the judges of Schuylkill County, have changed their minds since 1934, it can only be for the reason that at that time there was a Republican legislature and there would probably have been a Republican appointed as judge, and at this time there is a Democratic legislature, and undoubtedly there will be a Democratic judge appointed. It seems to me that the Senator from Tioga and I are talking about other fellows.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I want to call the attention of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, that the date of the memorandum I read from my letter was all in the year 1934. In 1934 there were 1594 criminal cases brought in that county; The following year it dropped 350 cases, and there has been no substantial increase since that time, so it is not true that the situation is the same as it was in 1934, when the record shows that there were 350 less criminal cases both in the year 1935 and the year following compared with the year of which the Senator from Philadelphia speaks.

I would like to read just one further paragraph in this letter:

"On the civil side, the same is true. In this court, 60 days annually are allowed for the trial of jury cases. In 1929, I sat in jury trials in civil court a total of 33 days; in 1932, 43½ days; in 1935, 39½ days; and in 1936, only 28½ days. Our civil list for each term of court allows 120 cases. Recently, the full complement of cases has not been ordered on the list. The only delay in this court arises from cross engagements of counsel. That is, the same counsel represent parties in a number of cases. Obviously, they can try only one case at a time. This situation could not be avoided even if we had a dozen judges. Is it is, we are hard put to it to keep three judges busy in the trial of civil cases. This court is so nearly abreast of the civil list that it is possible, barring cross engagements of counsel, to try a civil list at the same term in which the suit is instituted. At the January term of civil court, we reached and disposed of two cases that were commenced in the same January term. Cases that were begun after November 10, 1936, were reached and tried during the civil term which was held during the last two weeks in January, 1937. Had it not been for cross engagements of counsel, the court could have tried every January Term case that appeared on the list."

Now, Mr. President, it is obvious that the concern of my friend from Philadelphia which prompts him to sponsor legislation to put another judge in Schuylkill County, where the judges say they are doing the work, is to establish in that county a Democratic judge. It so happens that the three judges now in Schuylkill County are Republicans. I think the people of Pennsylvania will understand this bill.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, there seems to be a great division of sentiment in Schuylkill County as to the necessity of this bill. I have a letter from a party in Schuylkill County which was written on May 5, 1937, it reads as follows:

"Dear Senator:

Accept my hearty thanks for your vote and influence used against the Bill to provide another Common Pleas Judge for Schuylkill County.

Just now we are conducting a Session of Criminal Court at Pottsville and our Fourth Judge—G. Edward Gangloff has not as yet been called upon for any Common Pleas work although available.

If there are times when apparently the Court should function just a little faster—it is because of certain Attorneys accepting numerous cases for one and the same term of Court so that they cannot of necessity be in more than one Court room at one and the same time.

You evidently have some honest advisor from Schuylkill County and in this matter he has advised you correctly and you have acted with discretion and honor.

The several Thousand supporters of our work here in this County will be pleased indeed to read that you were one of the Men who helped block this particular Legislation.

Cordially yours,

Arthur B. Fleming, President
Schuylkill County Law Enforcement League"

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, if the citizens from Schuylkill County feel that they want to compliment the Senator from Bucks publicly it is their privilege, but I do not think I need any excuse for delving into the affairs of Schuylkill County any more than the Senator from Tioga, when he apoligizes fro my taking the opposite view, but I want to correct the mistake he made about the list of cases. The list of cases from which I read was for the year 1937 and not for the year 1934. There are some 84 cases out of 357 covering the years 1934 and 1935 and 107 of which remain undisposed. Their cases run from 1934 to 1937. In the November term 1936 there were 30 cases. In the September term 1936, there were 41 cases. Now these cross engagements of the attorneys may have interfered with the disposition of some of these cases but it is obvious that the cases are not being disposed of, and the Senator who is sponsor of the bill has brought a verification of the facts that I have read on the floor of the Senate, and I have presented these statements to the members of the Senate so that they may know my reason for asking for the reconsideration of the vote by which the bill was defeated.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

Section 4 Any person or persons who shall violate any of the provisions of this act or the rules and regulations of the department as herein provided for shall upon conviction in a summary proceeding be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars or more than one hundred dollars and in default of the payment of such fine and costs shall be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than thirty days

Section 5 Prosecutions for violation of this act may be instituted by the Secretary of Labor and Industry or his duly authorized representative

Section 6 The term blaster or shot-firer as used in this act is defined to mean any person who engages for hire in the charging or firing of explosive materials used in commercial blasting operations Nothing in this act shall be construed to apply to persons doing blasting or shot-firing in agricultural work on farms

Section 7 All other acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, this bill was brought before the Senate and was voted down two weeks ago. This bill is known as the 'Blasters' bill, which concerns my constituents and myself very much. This does not include coal miners of the bituminous and anthracite regions, and it also exempts farmers, but it does not exempt a group of people who are in my county who, in the years past, have made a livelihood during the winter season. We have many small lime quarries in my county which are owned by farmers, and many men who are out of work will go to the farmers and make arrangements to pay them royalty for their lime, and two or three of them will go together and they will quarry lime during the winter season. In the spring they will market it, thereby having work in the winter, and if this bill passes it will eliminate these persons, because that is a commercial business.

Now I do not see why we want to impose upon these people, for they will possibly put only one or two shots a day in the lime quarry, and it will necessitate on their part the hiring by them of a registered blaster or shooter. We do not know what the registration requirements will be. The bill does not mention it, but we are giving the Administration power to put on whatever they may see fit so far as the requirements are concerned. We do not know whether the laboring men in that group and in that section will be able to pass the requirements. If they do not, then it will cause them to hire a man at a high price to put in one or two shots a day, therefore, I insist that the Senate vote down this bill and not burden the people in that county and throw many out of work during the winter season.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I am sorry but I must disagree with the Senator from Clarion, Mr. Kahle, when he states that this bill does not include coal miners. This bill includes any man, whether he be a coal miner, farmer or any other person. The bill reads: "Any person who engages for hire in the charging or firing of explosive materials used in commercial blasting operations." So it does include the farmer and coal miner who hires out as such. It is true that it does exempt the farmer blasting on his own premises for his own purposes. I feel that this bill is an important piece of legislation and I believe it should be enacted.

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, the Senator from Cambria states that this bill does include the coal miner; the bill states: "Any person to be employed or permitted to engage in the occupation of blaster or shot-firer, except in anthracite or bituminous coal mines or in agricultural employment unless he shall first have obtained a license from the Department of Labor and Industry." It exempts miners, as I see it.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, to be more explicit, any man blasting in coal mines already is certified, and in spite of the fact that he is blasting in the earth, if he desires to blast on the surface, he must again be licensed as such.

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, I am not here offering any opposition to labor, I am here in the protection of labor, that certain class of labor which will be thrown out of labor by this bill. I am for labor 100% and always have been, and I want to protect labor for that reason.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows:

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

Section 7 This act shall become effective on the first day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to, and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the House is requested.

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed third reading.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend section 6, page 4, lines 19 and 20 by striking out the following: "(when such sales are not conducted at retail)"

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, this bill is designed to prevent fraud in the sale of damaged goods, goods damaged by fire. There is an exemption in for fire insurance companies who take the salvaged goods as part of the insurance. This bill provides, as it was inserted in the House, that it shall not apply to sales conducted by insurance companies or salvaging companies when such sales are not conducted at retail.

Now, there is no pretense of the fire insurance companies or salvaging companies practising unfair or fraudulent means of disposing of these goods, and to take away the rights of selling goods at retail practically annuls all the exemptions in favor of the fire insurance companies and the exception asked for by the associations or mutual fire insurance companies in Pennsylvania.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I should like to have the amendments re-read so that I can follow them with the bill.

The amendments were read by the Clerk.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this has the effect of killing the bill. This bill is aimed, as I have read it when it was first introduced, to prevent fraud in bankrupt sales. Most of those sales are usually at retail, and few, if any, of them are at wholesale. If this amendment is to be accepted, it would mean that the bill looses its full force and effect, up to 40%, 50% or ninety percent.

I object to the amendment.

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, this bill is designed to prevent fraud. There is no one who will allege that the Fire Insurance Company that takes part of the damaged goods for salvage is guilty of fraud in disposing of these goods. The bill is aimed at the fraudulent practices of disposing of goods alleged to be damaged by fire.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I am going to withdraw my objection to the amendments, because, as I see it, the House has already killed this bill by inserting the same amendments with regard to the sales, and it might as well be killed effectively.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. President, I move that the bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary Special for further consideration.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

ANNOUNCEMENTS BY THE SECRETARY

The Committee on Executive Nominations will meet immediately in the Office of the President Pro Tem.

The Committee on Mines and Mining will meet immediately in Room 265.

RECESS

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for five minutes.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

BILLS SIGNED

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Thomas Kennedy) announced that the Chief Clerk having reported that the following bills had passed both houses of the General Assembly and the same being correct, the titles were publicly read as follows:

Senate Bill No. 366, entitled:

An Act to amend sections three four six and seven and to add section 9.1 to the act approved the twenty-eighth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (Pamphlet Laws four hundred fifty-two entitled "An act to promote the welfare of the people of the Commonwealth creating a General State Authority as a body corporate and politic with power to construct improve and operate projects and to lease the same and to fix and collect fees rentals and charges for the use thereof authorizing and regulating the issuance of bonds by said Authority and providing for the payment of such bonds and the rights of the holders thereof and to enter into agreements with the Government of the United States or any Federal agency and authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies to grant assign convey or lease to the Authority lands of the Commonwealth and interests therein and to acquire lands therefor granting the right of eminent domain and providing that no debt of the Commonwealth shall be incurred in the exercise of any of the powers granted by this act" by providing for additional projects removing the date by which projects must be commenced removing certain restrictions against the construction of projects making such Authority perpetual; fixing the quorum of the Authority providing for the leasing of projects by the Authority of the Commonwealth clarifying the powers of a receiver appointed pursuant to such act so as to prohibit such receiver from selling assigning mortgaging or otherwise disposing of any of the assets belonging to the Authority and clarifying certain provisions of said act.

Senate Bill No. 425, entitled:

An Act for the protection of the health and welfare of women and minors by regulating under the police power the minimum fair wages which shall be paid by employers; providing for wage boards, and defining the powers and duties of such boards and of the Department of Labor and Industry; imposing duties on employers; providing for directory and mandatory orders on employers and the publication of the names of employers who do not comply with such orders; exempting certain persons from the provisions of this act and providing penalties.

Senate Bill No. 640, entitled:

An Act to encourage the making and maintaining of agreements concerning wages hours and conditions of employment between employers and employes by their representatives and the settlement of controversies concerning the same by mediation and voluntary arbitration conferring powers of mediation and arbitration of such controversies on the Department of Labor and Industry

Whereupon,

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

PHILADELPHIA CHARTER COMMISSION

The PRESIDENT. In the matter of Senate Bill No. 714, House Bill No. 999, creating a Philadelphia Charter Commission, the President Pro Tempore announces the appointment of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. SHA-PIRO, and the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. WOODWARD, as members of said commission.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. FREY from the Committee on Executive Nominations reported with a favorable recommendation the following recommendation made by His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth:

JUDGES OF COMMON PLEAS COURT No. 7 OF PHILADELPHIA COUNTY.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May 10, 1937.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor hereby to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate the following:

L. Stauffer Oliver, of Germantown, Philadelphia County, for appointment as President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas No. 7 of Philadelphia County, to serve until the first Monday of January, 1938.

James C. Crumlish, of Philadelphia, Philadelphia County, for appointment as Judge of the Court of Common Pleas No. 7 of Philadelphia County, to serve until the first Monday of January, 1938 (this appointment to have priority over the appointment of Joseph Sloane).

Joseph Sloane, of Philadelphia, Philadelphia County, for appointment as Judge of the Court of Common Pleas No. 7 of Philadelphia County, to serve until the first Monday of January, 1938.

GEORGE H. EARLE.

APPOINTMENT OF JUDGES

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May 10, 1937.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor hereby to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate the following:

Isaac Crawford Sutton, of Philadelphia, Philadelphia County, for appointment as President Judge of the Family Court of the County of Philadelphia, and designated first in seniority, to serve until the first Monday of January, 1938.

Michael A. Spatola, of Philadelphia, Philadelphia County, for appointment as Judge of the Family Court of the County of Philadelphia, and designated second in seniority, to serve until the first Monday of January, 1938.

Felix Piekarski, of Philadelphia, Philadelphia County, for appointment as Judge of the Family Court of the County of Philadelphia, and designated third in seniority, to serve until the first Monday of January, 1938.

Joseph Moss, of Philadelphia, Philadelphia County, for appointment as Judge of the Family Court of the County of Philadelphia, and designated fourth in seniority, to serve until the first Monday of January, 1938.

GEORGE H. EARLE.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

By unanimous consent,

A motion was made by Mr. SONES,

That Rule 38, which requires nominations made by the Governor, to lie on the table one day be dispensed with, and the Senate do now resolve itself into Executive Session, for the purpose of acting upon all the nominations reported at today's session.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, will state his point of order.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, my point of order is, that it takes unanimous consent of the Senate to suspend Rule 38, unless the rules be suspended by a two thirds vote of the Senators present.

The PRESIDENT. No objection was made to the presentation of the report, the Chair so held.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I object to the immediate consideration.

The PRESIDENT. The report was made and the motion now is to suspend Rule 38, and that the Senate resolve itself into Executive Session. The motion is in order.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, Rule 38 provides that the nominations may not be voted upon by the Senate on the same day on which they are reported from Committee. The Rule referring to these nominations reads as follows:

"Which question shall not be put on the day on which the nomination or nominations are reported from Committee, unless by unanimous consent." That is the latter part of Rule 38 of this Senate.

The PRESIDENT. The motion is to suspend the rules.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, then I rise to this point of order: In order to suspend this rule it requires a two thirds vote of the Senators present.

The PRESIDENT. That is correct.

And the question recurring.

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. BUCKMAN and Mr. GELDER and were as follows, viz:

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 199, on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend section one, section three, as amended, sections seven and thirteen, and section seventeen as amended, and to repeal section six of the act, approved the twenty-fifth day of July, one thousand nine hundred thirteen (P. L. 1024), entitled "An act to protect the public health and welfare by regulating the employment of females in certain establishments, with respect to their hours of labor and the conditions of their employment; by establishing certain sanitary regulations in the establishments in which they work; by requiring certain abstracts and notices to be posted; by providing for the enforcement of this act by the Commissioner of Labor and Industry and others; by prescribing penalties for violations thereof; by defining the procedure in prosecutions; and by repealing all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions thereof," as amended, by excepting from the provisions of the act certain occupations and professions, further regulating the hours of labor; eliminating existing provisions permitting overtime work in certain cases and the exemption for the canning industry; imposing duties on employers and conferring powers and imposing duties on the Department of Labor and Industry; and providing penalties.

go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, I call up at this time Senate Bill No. 655 (House Bill No. 228), on third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 655, (House Bill No. 228), entitled:

An Act imposing an annual license tax for the privilege of operating maintaining or controlling within this Commonwealth a store or stores as herein defined prescribing the method and manner of collecting such tax and its disposition including an appropriation for the purpose of administering this act and providing penalties.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Chairman of the Committee on Finance, Mr. Rankin.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rankin, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rankin, if this bill, as it is now on the calendar, provides for a tax on chain theatres.

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, no.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, in view of the fact, as indicated by the Chairman of the Committee on Finance, that this bill does not cover chain theatres, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments as this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, I object.

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, I desire to ask the Chairman of the Finance Committee a question.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rankin, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, I would like to know from the Chairman of the Finance Committee, Mr. Rankin, why he is offering an objection to this amendment.

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, the reason I object, my first answer to Senator Rupp was wrong, because on page 2, line 18, it says: "Store: Any place of business or any mercantile establishment" * *" which would include chain theatres.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I would like to have the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rankin, continue further on that page, page 2, where the definition of 'store' sets forth or defines a store as being "any place of business or any mercantile establishment in which or from which tangible personal property of any kind is sold," and I do not see how under any possible stretch of imagination you can include chain theatres in that definition.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, if we read the entire section, I take the view that this bill does include theatres, chain theatres. In the first place, the word "stores" means "any place of business"; that is one complete statement, and then the act says: "Store," any place of business or any mercanitle establishment in which or from which tangible property of any kind is sold"; and then in the definition of "store", 'shall not include places of business commonly known as newsstands and warehouses or establishments at which the sole business conducted is that of selling, storing or distributing commodities in bulk', indicates clearly the intent of the Legislature that this shall include any store or mercantile establishment, and the limitations on stores is that it shall not include newsstands. It has no limitation on mercantile establishments, and it is quite evident that there are two kinds of places taxed, one is a store, a place of business, and the other is a mercantile establishment, but the mercantile establishment shall not include news stands.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, it seems there is no objection from the Chairman of the Committee on Finance, and it also seems that the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, does not object to these amendments being made, the chief contention is over the construction of the language in the bill, and there are several lawyers here tonight who have passed upon this question, and it would seem that there would be no harm done in having the amendments incorporated in the bill, because then it would clearly appear that chain theatres are to be taken into consideration when this bill comes up for final passage, so I see nothing wrong in incorporating Senator Cavalcante's amendments in this bill.

Mr. GILSON. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Chairman of the Finance Committee, Mr. Rankin.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rankin, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. GILSON. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rankin, if the construction of this definition of the word "store" would include theatres?

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, yes.

Mr. GILSON. Mr. President, and the theatre is an establishment where tickets are sold?

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, a place of business.

Mr. GILSON. Mr. President, and by the same analogy would it include a bus station or a railroad station where tickets are sold?

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, there is a difference.

Mr. GILSON. Mr. President, then as I understand the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rankin, a railroad station is not a place of business.

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, that is my construction.

Mr. GILSON. Mr. President, I would like to have the Senator explain to me why, if it would include a theatre —and a theatre is a place where tickets are sold—it would not include a railroad station where tickets are sold.

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, because it is not considered a place of business.

Mr. GILSON. Mr. President, then as I understand the reasoning of the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rankin, a railroad station is not a place of business, but a theatre, where tickets are sold, is a place of business.

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, that is my construction of it.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, there seems to a question on the part of a number of attorneys whether it includes chain theatres. Now, these amendments would only clarify what we contend what the bill already does; therefore, I have no objection to them and I will withdraw my objection to the amendments, in order that it may clarify that part of the bill.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I would like to enter an objection to the amendments.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. President, may I rise to a question of inquiry, as to whether or not this bill has passed third reading?

The PRESIDENT. The bill has not passed third reading. You will have to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed second reading.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed second reading.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalvante, who asked unanimous consent to present these amendments.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Fayette who is the sponsor of these amendments and by whom were they prepared?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, they were prepared by Mr. Fertig.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator who sponsored the amendments?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, at this time I am sponsoring the amendments.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator who requested him to sponsor the amendments?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, it was the result of a consultation between the Senator from Washington, Mr. Reed, and myself.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus will state his point of order.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, my point of order is that no Senator has the right to inquire into the private acts of any other Senator on this floor, and I do not think the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Kunkel has the right to ask the question he has asked. The Senator from Fayette has a right to his personal opinion, and the question of the Senator from Dauphin should not be asked under any rule of decency or legislation.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair is of the opinion that the interrogation is far afield.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I do not wish to inquire into any personal matters.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I insist on a ruling on a point of order that the question is not debatable.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order is not sustained.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I cannot understand why the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, would be so anxious to protect some other Senators from embarrassment.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I am just as anxious to protect the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Kunkel if he were put in that position.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Dauphin and the Senator from Fayette are well able to take care of themselves.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, it seems to me that we have a right to know the source and the persons concerned in amending this bill. We have a right to know what the motive is and the objection back of any suggestive amendments. We all know, and the public knows that there is terrific propoganda and sentiments stored up against this bill. We know that there are large financial interests at stake, and we have a right as Representatives of this Commonwealth to know the source of these last minute amendments proposed.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, may I inform the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Kunkel, that I have not been offered any money from the chain theatres to introduce these amendments.

The PRESIDENT . The question is on the motion to reconsider. Let the Chair suggest that the debate be confined to the question of reconsideration of the motion on the vote by which Senate Bill No. 655, House Bill No. 228 pass second reading.

And the question recurring

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I think the Members of the Senate ought to be pretty well tired of amendments to Senate Bill No. 655, House Bill No. 228. I think it is a mistake at this late hour to insert amendments on third reading, which nobody has seen. It may affect the entire interruption of the bill. I am convinced that this bill the Chain Store Tax Bill, should tax every chain store. I do not care whether the stores sell groceries or railroad tickets, they ought to be taxed. Now, this bill will no doubt go into a conference committee, I say, because we made amendments to the Bill after it came from the House, and I suggest that in order to save a great deal of time and the nerves of the Senators, that the Senator from Dauphin withdraw his objection and allow the amendments to be printed in the bill so that the House will have an opportunity to read the amendments and the conference committee can dispose of the whole question.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, my suspicions concerning the source of last minute amendments have in no wise been changed, notwithstanding that at the request of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, and with a great deal of reluctance, I withdraw my objection.

The PRESIDENT. The withdrawal of the objection in no vote changes the parliamentary situation; there is a motion before the Senate.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I suggest that the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, withdraw his motion and present his amendments.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, before I do that, I wish to inform the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Kunkel, that in my humble opinion if there is any inducement offered to anyone to keep these amendments out of the bill, the offer has been made to those who are fighting the introduction of these amendments to the bill. With that statement, Mr. President, I gladly withdraw my motion.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I withdraw my second.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. Speaker. Mr. President, I withdraw my objection to immediate consideration of the measure.

The PRESIDENT. The motion to reconsider and the objection to the amendments have been withdrawn.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend title, page 1, line 3 of title, by inserting after the word: "stores" the following: "theatre or theatres"; amend bill, page 1, line 1, by striking out the following: "Section 1"; amend sec. 1, page 2, line 2, by inserting after the word: " "Store" the following: "and Theatre"; amend sec. 2, page 2, by inserting after line 29 the following paragraph: "Theatre(', any building or place for the production of theatrical entertainment including opera, drama, comedy, vaudeville, motion pictures or other shows or a combination thereof."; amend sec. 3, page 3, line 5, by inserting after the word: "store" the following: "or theatre"; amend sec. 3, page 3, line 9, by inserting after the word: "store" the following: "or theatre"; amend sec. 3, page 3, line 11, by inserting after the word: "store" the following: "or theatre"; amend sec. 3, page 3, line 12, by inserting after the word: "store" the following: "or theatre"; amend sec. 3, page 3, line 5, by inserting after the word: "store" the following: "or theatre"; amend sec. 4, page 3, line 24, by inserting after the word: "store" the following: "or theatre"; amend sec. 4, page 4, line 2, by inserting after the word: "store" the following: "or theatre"; Amend sec. 5, page 4, line 10, by inserting after the word: "stores" the following: "or theatres"; amend sec. 5, page 4, line 13, by inserting after the word: "stores" the following: "or theatre or theatres"; amend sec. 5, page 4, line 15, by inserting after the word: "store" the following: "or theatre"; amend sec. 5, page 4, line 16, by inserting after the word: "store" the following: "or theatre"; amend sec. 5, page 4, line 17, by inserting after the word: "stores" the following: "or theatres"; amend sec. 5, page 4, by inserting at the end of line 18 the following: "or theatre"; amend sec. 5, page 4, line 19, by inserting after the word: "store" the following: "or theatre"; amend sec. 5, page 4, line 20, by inserting after the word: "stores" the following: "or theatres"; amend sec. 5, page 4, by inserting at the end of line 21 the following: "or theatre"; amend sec. 5, page 4, line 22, by inserting after the word: "store" the following: "or theatre"; amend sec. 5, page 4, line 23, by inserting after the word: "stores" the following: "or theatres"; amend sec. 5, page 4, by inserting at the end of line 24 the following: "or theatre"; amend sec. 5, page 4, line 25, by inserting after the word: "store" the following: "or theatre"; amend sec. 5, page 4, line 26, by inserting after the word: "stores" the following: "or theatres"; amend sec. 5, page 4, by inserting at the end of line 27 the following: "or theatre"; amend sec. 5, page 5, line 1, by inserting after the word: "store" the following "or theatre"; amend sec. 5, page 5, line 2, by inserting after the word: "stores" the following: "or theatres"; amend sec. 5, page 5, by inserting at the end of line 3 the following: "or theatre"; amend sec. 5, page 5, line 4, by inserting after the word: "store" the following: "or theatre"; amend sec. 5, page 5, line 5, by inserting after the word: "stores" the following: "or theatres"; amend sec. 5, page 5, by inserting at the end of line 6 the following: "or theatre"; amend sec. 5, page 5, line 7, by inserting after the word: "store" the following: "or theatre"; amend sec. 5, page 5, line 8, by inserting after the word: "stores" the following: "or theatres"; The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 200, entitled:

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 214 on third reading entitled:

An Act providing for the joinder of plaintiffs in civil suits and the rendition of verdicts and entry of judgment in such cases and defining the powers of the court in such cases go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 232, entitled:

An Act providing for the acquisition and maintenance by the Department of Forests and Waters with the advice of the Bushey Run Battlefield Commission of lands adjacent to and including the place where fifty soldiers killed in the battle of Bushy Run are buried as well as other portions of said battlefield and making an appropriation

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, I should like to be informed by one of the sponsors of this bill how much it is going to cost the State of Pennsylvania to provide for this acquisition and maintenance.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Armstrong, Mr. Sipe, supply this information?

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, the bill provides for $100,000 or whatever else they might need to meet the situation. If the proposition is taken over, it will become part of the present Bushy Run Battlefield Park.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I see in reading this bill that it calls for an appropriation of $75,000. I would like to ask the sponsor what they are going to do with that money, and if they could not get along with a little less money.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Adams, Mr. Rice, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I will. I would inform the Senator from Delaware, Mr. Heyburn, that this amount has been approved in the budget and by the Governor. This celebration had its origin back in 1913, when Governor Tener who was the Chief Executive of Pennsylvania, invited the assembled veterans to the reunion, which was held at Gettysburg, on the 75th Anniversary, and told them that the State of Pennsylvania would be their host. At the celebration the State of Pennsylvania spent over half a million dollars and the Federal Government about a million dollars. I might add that the Federal Government is going to co-operate in this Anniversary, and it is felt that this amount is not excessive to provide a final joint reunion for all of the veterans who took part in the Civil War, both the North and the South.

NAYS—2.

Kunkel,	Shapiro,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence,

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 773, entitled:

An Act relating to the dissemination of information pertaining to affairs of the Commonwealth including information pertaining to civil rights and constitutional guarantees and conferring powers and duties with respect thereto upon the Department of State

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Adams, Mr. Rice, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee whether this bill appropriating $17,000.00 was in the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, this bill was in the Committee on Appropriations and was reported out at the last meeting of the Committee.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee the purpose of the appropriation of $17,500.00 when the bill prescribing that the Department of State shall refer matters to the various departments of the Commonwealth.

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, the intention of this bill is to set up a new bureau in the Department of State, which will act as a clearing house for all information for the citizens of Pennsylvania who may have business with the Commonwealth. At the present time anyone seeking information as many of us realize, is chased around to about fourteen different departments, referred from one to the other, before that information is available. This will be one central bureau which will act as a clearing house, and if this bill cannot furnish the information desired by the applicant he will be referred direct to the place so that the information will be available.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, anyone who reads this bill carefully will see the purpose of it. Over in Germany they have what they call a Minister of Propaganda. This bill, in thinly disguised language, makes the Secretary of State the Minister of Propraganda in Pennsylvania.

And the question recurring.

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

(a) In each borough, incorporated town and township, the tax collector or township treasurer shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, give lawful fidelity bond to the Commonwealth, with two or more sufficient sureties, or with a surety company authorized by law to act as surety in this Commonwealth, conditioned that as tax collector of county, borough, town, township, school and poor taxes, he shall account for and pay over to the taxing unit entitled thereto, all moneys received and collected by him as taxes, penalties and interest. Any such tax collector or township treasurer and his sureties shall be discharged from further liability on any bond as tax collector, as soon as all tax items contained in the duplicates delivered to him are either: (1) collected and paid over, or (2) certified to the taxing body for entry as liens in the office of the prothonotary as provided by law, or (3) returned to the county commisioners for sale by the county treasurer as provided by law, or (4) in case of occupation, poll and per capita taxes, a record of those which remain uncollected is filed with the taxing authority. Any surety on the bond of any tax collector or township treasurer shall have authority to perform, for and in behalf of the tax collector or township treasurer, any of the acts herein required to be performed in order to discharge any tax collector or township treasurer from futher liability on his bond as tax collector. Any tax collector or his surety upon the performance for any year of the acts herein required to be performed in order to be discharged from liability on the bond, shall be discharged from such liability for such year.

(b) The tax collector of boroughs, incorporated towns, townships of the second class, shall be required to give but one bond which shall include his duties as collector of county borough, town, township, school and poor taxes. The township treasurer of townships of the first class shall be required to give but one bond, which shall include his duties as township treasurer and as tax collector of county, township, school and poor taxes. In addition to the condition hereinbefore prescribed in the bond of the treasurer of a township of the first class as tax collector, such bond shall contain an additional condition that as township treasurer he shall account for and pay over all moneys received by him in his capacity as township treasurer, and safely keep and pay over all public moneys entrusted to his care.

(c) The bond given by the tax collector or township treasurer shall cover his full term of office and shall be for the use of the county, borough, town, township, school district and poor district, and shall be filed with the county commissioners, except in the case of townshipp treasurers of townships of the first class, in which cases it shall be filed with the township commissioners.

(d) Where a bond with a surety company as surety is filed, the premium on the bond shall be paid in equal proportions by the taxing authorities other than poor districts.

(e) The penal sum in the bond of a tax collector shall be fixed by a committee consisting of one representative from each taxing authority other than poor districts, which committee shall also approve the sufficiency of the surety on any bond.

The second section of the bill was read as follows:

Section 2 Any such tax collector or first class township treasurer may appoint one or more suitable deputies to assist him in the execution of his warrant The tax collector or first class township treasurer shall fix and pay the compensation of such deputies out of his own salary or commissions Provided however That whenever a majority of all of the members of the combined tax levying authorities of all of the taxing districts deem it necessary that additional deputies be employed they may authorize the tax collector or first class township treasurer to employ such number of deputies as they deem necessary and fix their compensation which shall be paid by the respective taxing districts in the proportion that the amount of the duplicate of each bears to the total amount of all duplicates in the hands of the tax collector of first class township treasurer.

The tax collector or first class township treasurer shall be responsible for and account for all tax moneys and penalties collected by all deputies.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, move to amend Section 2 The compensation of all tax collectors and township treasurers for the collection of taxes shall be fixed by the several taxing authorities as now provided by law not later than July first of any year in which a tax collector or township treasurer is elected. But the commisions for the collection of taxes shall not in any taxing district exceed the following, based on the amount of tax, penalties and interest collected:

5% on the first	$10,000
4% on the next	10,000
3% on the next	10,000
2% on the next	20,000
1% on the remainder

Not later than August first of any year in which a tax collector or township treasurer is to be elected, one representative from each taxing unit affected shall meet at the county seat at a place to be fixed by the county commissioners in order to ascertain the amounts which any tax collector would receive in commissions if eighty-five per centum of the total amount of tax assessed in all the duplicates delivered during the current year to the tax collector or township treasurer had been collected by him. If it shall be ascertained that the combined commissions so determined would for any borough, town or second class township collector, exceed the sum of three thousand dollars on the combined duplicates for one year, then such collector shall be paid a salary in lieu of commissions which salary shall be three thousand dollars per year for the term of his office; if it shall be ascertained that the combined commissions so determined would, for any first class township treasurer, exceed the sum of six thousand dollars in any year, then the salary of the township treasurer as tax collector shall be six thousand dollars per year for the term of his office: Provided, however, That in any township of the first class where the total taxes assessed in all the duplicates delivered to him during the current year exceed two million dollars, the salary of the township treasurer shall be seven thousand five hundred dollars per year for the term of his office.

Where a salary is so fixed for a tax collector or township treasurer, the same shall be paid in equal proportions by the several taxing units other than poor districts.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Section 3 After exhausting all remedies provided by law for the enforcement of the payment of per capita poll or occupation taxes the tax collector or first class township treasurer shall prepare a list of all such taxes remaining unpaid and return such list together with the oath of the tax collector or first class township treasurer that he is unable to collect such taxes to the respective taxing districts The tax levying authorities of such districts shall thereupon allow the tax collector or first class township treasurer credit for the amount of all such tax items on the final settlement of the tax duplicate

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I move to amend

Section 3. In any borough, town or township, where the tax collector or township treasurer is to be paid an annual salary, the representatives other than the representative from a poor district, meeting at the county seat as hereinbefore provided, shall determine whether the tax collector or township treasurer is entitled to have the assistance of deputies and clerks in the performance of his duties as tax collector. If it shall be determined he is so entitled to assistance, said representatives shall fix the number and compensation of the deputies and clerks, which said collector or treasurer shall be allowed to appoint. The compensation of such deputies and clerks shall be paid in equal proportions by the several taxing units other than poor districts. The taxing units other than poor districts shall, in equal proportions, pay the premiums on any bonds which the tax collector or township treasurer may require his deputies and clerks to give for the faithful performance of their duties.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I second the motion.

SENATE MESSAGES

RESOLUTION CONCURRED IN BY SENATE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the resolution from the House of Representatives, as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 5, 1937.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), that Senate Bill No. 377, Printer's No. 243, entitled "An act to re-enact and further amend the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws 1409) entitled 'An act authorizing the Secretary of Highways to enter into agreements relating to support for State highway right of ways underlaid by coal and for the ascertainment and assessment of damages sustained by reason of the abligation to furnish such support whether the damages are payable by the Commonwealth or a county' extending said act to all counties of this Commonwealth," be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, May 6, 1937.

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur) That

Whereas, A henious sex crime was committed recently in Chester County by a person paroled from the Pennsylvania Industrial School at Huntingdon who has since been convicted of this crime; and

Whereas, The commission of such crimes raises in the minds of the public the soundness of a parole system which releases criminals from confinement only to perpetuate future crimes of a similar nature; and

Whereas, A Commission has been created at this Session of the General Assembly with power to make investigations respecting the probation and paroling of persons guilty of crime; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate of the Commonwealth hereby requests the Commission created by the Act of March 9, 1937, Act No. 11, authorized to make an investigation of the practice and procedure in the courts, to specifically investigate the facts and circumstances surrounding the parole of the defendant in the case recited in the preable hereof.

Article III, Section 305, was read as follows:

Section 305 License Issuance Supervision The issuance of all hunting licenses shall be under the direct supervision of the Department of Revenue which shall designate the several county treasurers and such other issuing agents throughout the Commonwealth or otherwise as it may find essential to control the lawful issuance thereof

The Department of Revenue may recall the appointment of any county treasurer or other agent at any time with or without cause and shall recall the appointment of any county treasurer or other agent either upon receipt of evidence that such county treasurer or other agent has not complied with the requirements of this act or upon receipt of a recommendation from the commission that such county treasurer or other agent be recalled because of carelessnes or negligence in the issuance of licenses

It is unlawful for any issuing agent or any of his employes or representatives or the Department of Revenue or its employes to issue any license to hunt to any applicant or for any justice of the peace magistrate notary public or other agent authorized to receive applications to accept an application for such a license from any applicant who has not established satisfactory indentification as hereinbefore required or to any person physically or mentally unfitted to carry or use firearms or who has been denied the right to secure a license in any manner hereinafter specified by revocation

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. 305, page 20, line 1, by striking out the words "county treasurer or other agent" and inserting in lieu thereof: "or agent other than a county treasurer".

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. SCHROPE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Achterman.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Monroe permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SCHORPE. Mr. Speaker, the way I understand it now, that amendment will eliminate the other agent part from the bill, is that right?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, that will not eliminate the other agent.

Mr. SCHROPE. What will the amendment do, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, this is in effect what the amendment will do: it will prevent the discharge of a county treasurer as an agent of the Department of Revenue unless for cause shown. It will still permit the Department of Revenue to discharge an agent of their own selection with or without cause, but it maintains the county treasurer as the fiscal agent in the respective counties for that Department except in cases where for cause shown they be discharged.

Mr. SCHOPE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the amendments to this bill have been in committee for over a month, and the original bill has been in committee from the twenty-third of February. This particular section was under discussion by the committee for a rather long period of time. With the amended bill as it is, it permits the Department of Revenue to discharge any agent including the county treasurers if for some reason or other they neglect to perform their duty properly. The county treasurer should come in the same category as any other agent, and I feel that there is ample provision in this bill to take care of a county treasurer if he performs his duty properly in the issuance of hunting licenses without any additional amendment. I ask the House to vote down these amendments.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I am fearful that the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Schrope, has lost sight of or misunderstands the intent of the amendment. Very frankly, we have made no effort to change the act as he drafted it for the purpose of discharging a county treasurer where he fails to perform the duties of his office. It is only in instances where any effort is made to remove him from the performance of those duties without cause that we say that such a situation should not be permitted in this particular act. It is well a known fact to every member of this House that the county treasurer is the general, accepted agent of the Department of Revenue in each and every county of this Commonwealth. We have heard no reason why that course of action on the part of the Commonwealth should be changed at the present time or why any department should be given the right to discharge without cause a particular agent who has been designated since time immemorial in this State to act as the agent of the State and the county and the only thing that this amendment does is to continue the particular right of the county treasurer to still represent the State of Pennsylvania in the granting of hunting licenses in the State. If he should fail to perform his duties or if he violates this act he could still be discharged. The amendment does not remove that right from the Department of Revenue. In view of that fact I am calling upon the members of the House to support the amendment.

Mr. SCHROPE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I shall for the benefit of the members of the House just read the second of the act as it now reads or part of the section: "—and shall recall the apointment of any county treasurer or other agent either upon receipt of evidence that such county treasurer or other agent has not complied with the requirements of this act or upon receipt of a recommendation from the commission that such county treasurer or other agent be recalled because of carelessness or negligence in the issuance of licenses." That is in the act without the amendment and I feel that is sufficient reason to remove a county treasurer without any additional reason.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, for the benefit of the gentleman from Schuylkill I will endeavor to read exactly how the section will read if the amendment is adopted. I will read as follows: "The Department of Revnue may recall the appointment of any agent other than county treasurer at any time with or without cause and shall recall the appoint of any county treasurer or other agent either upon receipt of evidence that such county treasurer or other agent has not complied with the requirements of this act or upon receipt of recommendation from the commission that such county treasurer or other agent be recalled because of carelessness or negligence in the issuance of licenses."

I submit to the members of the House that certainly comes within the province and the desire and is in accordance with the wishes of the gentleman from Schuylkill.

I, therefore, again ask the members of the House to support the amendment.

Mr. ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as a member of the Game Committee, also a member of the sub-committee, it was my understanding in presenting this bill No. 1000 from the Committee on Game for the second time, it would be the last of any amendment, and I am asking this House to pass this bill for third reading at this time without amendment.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER declared the noes appeared to have it,

Whereupon, a division was called for fifty-one members having voted in the affirmative and seventy-seven in the negative, the question was determined in the negative and the amendment were not agreed to.

Article III, Sections 036 to 321 inclusive were separately read and agreed to as follows:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. LaRUE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend section 401, page 38, lines 17 and 18, by striking out: all of said lines.

Amend section 401, page 38, line 19, by striking out the letter "(f)" and inserting in lieu thereof the letter: "(e)"

Amend section 401, page 38, line 22, by striking out the letter "(g)" and inserting in lieu thereof the letter: "(f)"

Amend section 401, page 38, line 24, by striking out the letter: "(h)" and inserting in lieu thereof the letter "(g)"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. SCHROPE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Berks, Mr. LaRue.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Berks permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LaRUE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SCHROPE. Mr. Speaker, it was rather difficult to follow those amendments. There were too many letters to strike out. Will the gentlemtn kindly explain what, in his opinion, the amendments do.

Mr. LaRUE. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the question of the gentleman from Schuylkill, there are three pages of amendments to cover one section of the bill, namely the regulated shooting grounds. They pertain only to that particular section of the bill and will strike out the entire section on regulated shooting grounds.

Mr. SCHROPE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this particular section of House Bill No. 1000 probably was discussed more than any other section by the committee. It was recommitted about three or four weeks ago and the committee again discussed this section at that time. Mr. LaRue happens to be a member of that committee. We discussed the various features of regulated hunting grounds and the committee agreed to that section of the bill

For the information of the members I will state what the regulated shooting grounds do and what they do not do and I will try to be very brief. In the first place, there are between fifteen and twenty regulated shooting grounds in our State today with absolutely no regulation over them. I have taken the matter up with various lawyers, including Judge Ladner of Philadelphia, who said we had no control over those shooting grounds to prohibit them, though we may regulate them by the provisions of the Constitution. This regulated shooting grounds section does no more than to permit those who are willing to spend the money upon one hundred or more acres of land, stock it with only ring-necked pheasants and mallard ducks and if they stock those regulated shooting grounds, they must turn over to the State twenty-five percent of the birds that they liberate or raise, and in addition provide hunting territory adjacent to the shooting grounds equal to one-half of the area. The shooting grounds cannot be enclosed by any fence whereby the birds may not escape. The entire question that arises in the mind of Mr. LaRue is this: it provides a special privilege for those who have the means to take advantage of it. We cannot disagree on that because a man who has the means has a special privilege in all classes of sports or work. But I would challenge the gentleman from Berks, Mr. LaRue, to show that at any time this section will take away from the average sportsman any of his sport for you cannot deny the fact that the regulated shooting grounds must provide additional shooting for the man who cannot even afford it.

I hope that the day will come when all the millionaires in this State become interested in this type of sportsmanship, and raise game by which they give to us twenyt-five percent of that which they raise, and likewise provide shooting grounds. There is nothing in this section that will in any way take away any of the advantages that the average sportsman has, but instead it will provide better shooting, and that the opponents of this section cannot deny. That to my mind is the only thing that we can be interested in: the very fact that this section which provides for these shooting grounds will also provide better shooting and better hunting for the average sportsman, and that should be our aim in considering this and passing bill. I ask the members of the House to vote down this amendment.

Mr. LaRUE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, It is true that the committee voted down these amendments by a vote of eight to five, out of a membership of that committee of twenty-five men. So, you see the vote was rather close and had all the members of that committee attended that meeting the decision of the committee might have been reversed. We feel that this is special legislation for a special group who can afford it and is in line with the practice that is followed in England. We do not feel that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania should be governed by the laws that are in vogue in England. We feel we can take care of our own situation in Pennsylvania very well without regulated shooting grounds.

Mr. Schrope has told you we have no control over private shooting grounds today. I want to say under these amendments you would have control over private shooting grounds as they are today by providing that such private shooting grounds come under the provisions of this act governing the taking of wild reared game. He has also told you that the regulated shooting grounds will have to release at least twenty-five percent of the game which they propagate and shall provide land for free hunting. That is very true. If you go out into our small game hunting land and you come to a section that might be good cover-up, consisting of four or five hundred acres, which is covered with a lot of boulders and high weeds where game will seek cover, and under this particular section of the bill provide the regulated shooting grounds, the owner is compelled to open up an area which is private and if that area which is opened up to the public is farm land, which is cultivated, there is very little food there and nothing to draw the game there, that game by feeding it in the private area will immediately return from the open area into the private area, and the average hunter will have no advantage of the twenty-five percent of the game that is released and supposed to be shot by the public.

Another provision of the regulated shooting grounds, it extends the season until the last day of December, whereas the average hunter does not enjoy that privilege, as he may only hunt until the last day of the open season, which is usually a day or two prior to the first day of December. The Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs met here in caucus on February 12th, which is the general practice, and prior to this year separate bills were introduced in the Legislature for this particular thing, and in every caucus that I have attended of the Federation this particular measure has been voted down by the Federation. You may be told on the floor of the House tonight that the Federation is in favor of this particular section of the bill. Several representatives of the Federation appeared here about a week or so ago and they did go on record as individuals but in no way was the general membership of that Federation in this matter of regulated shooting grounds.

I have a letter before me tonight from the Secretary and Treasurer of the Federation, dated May 5th, from which I shall quote:

"How is House Bill No. 1000, with the game code amendments coming along? I was very glad to hear you make the stand that you were against the shooting preserve section, and it would please me and the organization, which have voted against this very thing for years, the United Sportsmen of Pennsylvania if the whole section was thrown out. We are against special privileges of any kind."

That is the thought of the secretary and treasurer. Judge Ladner, who was President of the Federation, went on record for that particular section, but I am telling you the thought in a caucus of the Federation when sixty-seven counties were represented here, to the effect that they always went on record as being opposed to any regulated shooting grounds, and I am going to ask the membership to support me in these amendments.

Mr. SIMON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not wish to enter into any discussion on this bill, but as my county has a very active Fish and Game Association, which is a member of the Association of Federated Sportsmen of Pennsylvania I want to read into the record a telegram from them tonight, which is as follows: "House Bill No. 1000 is O. K. Your support will be appreciated."

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. LaRUE and Mr. ACHTERMAN and were as follows:

So the question was determined in the negative and the amendments were not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would like to call to the attention of the members that in the discussion of amendment they are out of order if they divulge the proceedings of the committee that considered this bill or any other bill. The Chair has noticed this happening in various instances and wishes to call it to the attention of the members. The proceedings of committees shall not be divulged on the floor of the House.

Article IV, Section 402 was read as follows:

Section 402 Applications for Permits Any person firm association or corporation desiring a permit as provided for in this article shall present an application therefor on forms supplied by the commission and shall pay to the director five dollars except in the following cases Taxidermists desiring to practice taxidermy for profit shall pay twenty-five dollars fur dealers who have resided permanently in this Commonwealth for the preceding twelve months or more purchasing or receiving raw furs for commercial purposes shall pay ten dollars non-resident fur dealers purchasing or receiving raw furs for commercial purposes in this Commonwealth shall pay fifty dollars persons desiring to operate regulated shooting grounds shall pay twenty-five dollars for the first one hundred acres in the tract so used and five dollars for each additional one hundred acres or fraction thereof and breeders and dealers in ferrets or fitches shall pay twenty-five dollars

The application shall be accompanied by the written statement of at least two well known citizens of the community in which the applicant resides certifying to his good character and to his fitness to be intrusted with the authority granted by such special permit

In the case of applications for permits by firms associations or corporations the application shall bear the name of the president or general manager and the permit shall be isued in his name All applications for propagating permits and regulated shooting grounds permits shall be accompanied by a written description and a map or sketch of the premises to be used for such purpose with the location thereof

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section.

Mr. LaRUE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend section 402, page 38, lines 18 to 22, inclusive, by striking out after the word "dollars", in line 18, and ending with the word "thereof," in line 22, the following: "persons desiring to operate regulated shooting grounds shall pay twenty-five dollars for the first one hundred acres in the tract so used and five dollars for each additional one hundred acres or fraction thereof."

Amend section 402, page 40, line 5, by striking out after the word "permits": the words "and regulated shooting grounds permits."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

AMENDMENTS WITHDRAWN

Mr. LaRUE. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my amendments to Article IV, Section 402 and all my other amendments.

On the question recurring,

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 947, as follows:

An Act to amend section three of the act approved the twenty-seventh day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 465) entitled "An act to provide for the safety of persons employed housed or assembled in certain buildings and structures not in cities of the first class second class and second class A by requiring certain construction and ways of egress equipment and maintenance providing for the licensing of projectionists requiring the submission of plans for examination and approval providing for the promulgation of rules and regulations for the enforcement of this act providing for the enforcement of this act by the Department of Labor and Industry and in certain cases by the chiefs of fire departments in cities of the third class providing penalties for violations of the provisions of this act and repealing certain acts" as amended requiring buildings to be equipped with certain equipment in connection with gas meters to prevent or retard the escape of gas

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That Section three of the act approved the twenty-seventh day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 465) entitled "An act to provide for the safety of persons employed housed or assembled in certain buildings and structures not in cities of the first class second class and second class A by requiring certain construction and ways of egress equipment and maintenance providing for the licensing of projectionists requiring the submission of plans for examination and approval providing for the promulgation of rules and regulations for the enforcement of this act providing for the enforcement of this act by the Department of Labor and Industry and in certain cases by the chiefs of fire department in cities of the third class providing penalties for violations of the provisions of this act and repealing certain acts" as amended by the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws 1523) is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 3 Special Requirements There shall be installed such emergency lighting systems sprinkler systems [and] fire alarm systems and gas and shut-off valves in such of the buildings enumerated in this act as the Department of Labor and Industry may specify and which in its judgment are necessary to give the proper protection from fire and panic to those employed assembled lodged or housed therein No such systems shall be installed unless they are of a type approved by the Department of Labor and Industry

All buildings enumerated in this act which may be supplied from some outside source with gas shall be equipped with a gas shut-off valve attached to the gas supply pipe or pipes on the inside of the building at a point where said pipes enter the building and before they reach the gas meter which valve shall be connected with a conspicuous and conveniently accessible control box at a place on the exterior of the building so arranged as to allow the gas supply to be shut off by any member of any fire department immediately wherever the necessity arises The fire department of any municipality shall have the exclusive use of gas shut-off valves and their operation in the event of fire or other emergency Such shut-off valve and said control box for the shut-off valve shall be so marked as to indicate their respective purpose The gas shut-off valve shall be so constructed as to automatically shut off the gas when subjected to sufficient heat

All gas shut-off valves and necessary appliances shall be designed to minimize the danger of explosion and to prevent or retard the escape of gas in case of fire and be of types approved by the Department of Labor and Industry

All existing buildings and every building hereafter erected subject to the provisions of this act shall be equipped with such device and necessary appliances within six months after the effective date of this act

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 250, Printer's No. 489, on page 26 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. MORAN.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 250, entitled:

An Act authorizing cities boroughs and towns to construct acquire own operate and control waterworks and electric plants and appurtenances thereto and to sell and purchase water and electrical energy both within and without their corporate limits conferring the power of eminent domain conferring certain powers and imposing certain duties on such municipalities and the controller or auditors thereof providing for the incorporation and election of a board of directors to operate and manage such works and defining its powers and duties and prescribing penalties

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of amendments at this time? Is there objection?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Moran.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MORAN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, as I understand these amendments, you are taking it from the courts and giving it to the Public Service Commission, is that correct?

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, the Public Utility Commission.

Mr. TURNER. The Public Utility Commission. I am still practicing under the old act.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I do not expect the gentleman to change his ways.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman answer my question? I asked him whether he was taking this from the courts and giving it to the Public Utility Commission?

Mr. MORAN. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Does that mean, Mr. Speaker that he is giving the control over municipal water works and gas and electric plants to the Public Utility Commission?

Mr. MORAN. Why, no, Mr. Speaker. They are merely going to act as a sort of referee in case any municipality desires to take over a public utility facility of any kind and we feel that they are better qualified to know what it is all about rather than a judge who doesn't know anything about utilities.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman say that was true under present circumstances, that the court did not know any more about public utilities than the Public Utility Commission?

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I believe and agree that the Public Utility Commission knows more about it than the court because they are dealing with it at all times and some of its members have been dealing with it for years.

Mr. TURNER. Under section 851, Mr. Speaker, there was a provision that gave the Commission the right to regulate the rates of utilities but I believe that has been taken out by the amendment. Here I notice that you give them the right to regulate outside of the municipality.

Mr. MORAN. No, I do not understand it that way, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Then, Mr. Speaker, the amendments of the gentleman do not carry out what he says.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman show me where in those amendments what he says is in there?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, on the amendment of the gentleman, section 21, on the third page of his amendments, "control, sell or lease public utility facilities and to add to and maintain facilities to enable it to furnish or render public utilities service within or beyond its corporate limits or both."

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, that will allow any municipality that now has a plant under this act to sell beyond their corporate limits.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, on the next page of the amendments of the gentleman, the amendment to section 23 reads: "no municipality shall exercise the right of eminent domain herein conferred against any real property outside its corporate limits without the approval of the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission."

Mr. MORAN. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, does that not refer to outside.

Mr. MORAN. Yes, Mr. Speaker, I would say so.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, isn't that regulation outside?

Mr. MORAN. Well, Mr. Speaker, somebody has got to regulate them, even municipal.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objection and consent is not granted.

RULE 81 SUSPENDED

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Rule No. 81 be suspended for the specific purpose of reconsidering the vote on this bill.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman's motion was to suspend the rule.

The SPEAKER. That is the motion we are voting on, to suspend Rule No. 81.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I understood that the question you are putting to the House was to reconsider a vote.

The SPEAKER. That is correct. The only way that we can reconsider the vote is to suspend Rule No. 81 because the time limit on this bill has already passed.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of Parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, what rule did the gentleman ask be suspended?

The SPEAKER. Rule No. 81.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

On a rising vote one hundred and twenty-one members or more than a majority having voted in the affirmative, the motion was agreed to.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which the House ordered this bill to be transcribed for third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Moran, vote on the motion?

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Ominsky, vote on the motion?

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which the House agreed to the bill on second reading be reconsidered.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which the title was agreed to be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which the various sections were agreed to be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1897, entitled:

An Act Authorizing the Governor to enter into compacts with the Governors of certain other States and possessions of the United States relative to the producing of tobacco

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOOD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House. House Bill No. 1897 and 1898 which is the next bill on the calender are companion bills and should be considered together as one is no good without the other.

I just want to tell the members of this House that the farmers of Lancaster County, and they grow between 85 and 90 per cent of the tobacco in Pennsylvania are opposed to this Tobacco Compact and Commission Bill by a big majority. This was clearly demonstrated by the large crowd which was in attendance at the public hearing which was held before the Agriculture Committee two weeks ago at which over 1000 farmers were in attendance and all were opposed to these bills with the exception of about 40 people.

When 1000 farmers leave home and let their work stand idle for a day during these busy days on a farm to come to Harrisburg to protest against the passage of these bills, it shows that they are vitally interested in their future welfare. Also several meetings were held at various places in Lancaster County during the last two weeks and they were overwhelmingly opposed to crop control and regulation.

Being a farmer myself and in touch daily with the tobacco farmers and his troubles if I thought for one minute that the majority of farmers would be benefited by such a commission and that they wanted such a plan I would be one of its most enthusiastic supporters.

The farmers have made Lancaster County one of the most successful farming districts in the nation by using their good judgment, hard work, long hours and by careful and economical stewardship.

It has taken 200 years to build up their farms to the high state of production they are at the present time. The only reason that they have a tobacco market today is because by hard work they have built up their farms to high production and have developed a tobacco of excellent quality. If you make the price high enough you will encourage other people to start to grow it and we can easily lose the market to other countries who have cheap labor and cheap land as happened in the case of cotton when they destroyed part of the crop in the South. Brazil and other countries started to grow more cotton and so today we have lost the market forever as they can raise it more cheaply because of cheap labor and cheap land.

In 1929 and 1930 when tobacco was selling at 3 to 4 cents per pound the farmers of Lancaster County reduced the acreage of tobacco by 14,000 acres which goes to show that they were reducing the crop voluntarily in an effort to get better prices and also that the farmers will regulate their production according to the law of supply and demand.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I respectfully ask you to defeat this bill as it is setting a dangerous precedent because if compulsary crop reduction is good for tobacco it is equally good for potatoes, grapes, corn, etc.

Also you are trying to force something on the farmers that they do not want.

Mrs. HORTING. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of these measures. I contend that when conditions affect a great many people to their hurt and when they are powerless to do anything to remedy those conditions because they are maintained by the will of others, then those conditions become social problems and it is then time for government to take a hand. Such a situation has arisen in connection with the tobacco raising industry of Pennsylvania. The opponents of this bill would tell you that we are interfering with the freedom of the individual farmer of Pennsylvania, because my friend from Lancaster County has said that we are interfering with the farming of Lancaster County.

I submit to you the words of President Roosevelt uttered less than a year ago in Milwaukee when he said that "freedom and opportunity do not mean license to push other people down." That is the result that will be accomplished if we allow our farmers to increase production until the production surpasses consumption. I fail to understand the position taken by my good friend from Lancaster County. This bill was taken as a leaf from the Republican platform of 1932. I should like to read from that platform: "Farm distress in America has its roots in the enormous expansion of agricultural production during the war. The fundamental problem of American agriculture is the control of production to such volume as will balance supply with demand. A third element equally vital is the control of the acreage of land under cultivation as an aid to the efforts of the farmer to balance production."

I ask the membership of this House to support these bills.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I hesitate to rise in opposition to these bills especially after being sponsored by my good friend, the lady from Lancaster. I had not discovered that these bills were on the calendar until a few days ago, when the lady from Lancaster, Mrs. Horting, called my attention to them. But, seriously, members of the House, I wish to call your attention to the fact that in the 1935 Session of the Legislature a resolution was passed by the Senate and House, signed by the Governor, creating a commission known as the Inter-State Cooperation Commission. That commission was appointed and I understand has been functioning. A preliminary report of this commission was placed on your desks just a few days ago. Senate Bill No. 52 was recently passed by the Senate and the House and signed by the Governor on March 24, 1937, making permanent the Pennsylvania Commission on Inter-State Cooperation, as well as the Committee on Inter-State Cooperation of the Senate and the House of Representatives. This commission is composed of five members from the House, five from the Senate and five from the Executive Department. Similar commissions have since been created and are functioning in the states of Ohio, New Jersey, West Virginia and Kentucky. Until these commissions have had an opportunity of studying the relations between their respective states and Pennsylvania, so far as the production of tobacco is concerned, I feel that this legislation should not be passed.

Mr. Speaker, I should like to interrogate the lady from Lancaster, Mrs. Horting.

The SPEAKER. Will the lady from Lancaster permit herself to be interrogated?

Mrs. HORTING. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, on page 4 the districts into which the tobacco producing territory of Pennsylvania is divided,—will the lady from Lancaster tell me on what basis those districts were determined?

Mrs. HORTING. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the question of the gentleman from Lancaster, I will say that those districts were divided so that each one would be composed of fifteen hundred producers. I might further add that they were also planned geographically in so far as that was possible.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, if you will turn to page 4 and take district No. 1 you will find that Dauphin County, Clinton County, Lycoming County, Bradford County, Tioga County, Juniata county as counties are classed with East Hempfield Township, West Hempfield Township and so forth in Lancaster County; district No. 2 is York County, and those other townships in Lancaster County; district No. 3 Lebanon County, Berks County and other townships in Lancaster County, indicating definitely that this legislation is primarily Lancaster County legislation.

Now, I think that the Representatives and members of the House representing the second Legislative district, which takes in the farming territory of Lancaster County, as well as a number of boroughs, are intimately acquainted with the farming conditions of Lancaster County; we know our people, we were reared among them and we know their desires and we know their ability as farmers. If I for a moment thought that the majority of the farmers of Lancaster County desired this legislation, regardless of what the Republican platform was in 1932, or the Democratic platform in 1934 or in 1936—if I thought for a moment that the farmers of Lancaster County desired this legislation, that it would be a benefit to them, I want to say to you that there isn't anything that I would rather do than support the bills sponsored by the lady from Lancaster, Mrs. Horting. I have been over every section of the county and I have been unable to find farmers of any section who are in favor of this bill, and I want to say, members of the House, in the language of the good old Mennonite preacher who appeared at the hearing, "The only things that the farmers of Lancaster County want are sunshine, rain and the blessing of God as they will take care of the rest of it."

Mrs. HORTING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have just one further thought. I would like to call the attention of the membership of the House to page 6 at the bottom. This matter is put back into the hands of the farmers themselves if fifteen percent of the farmers call for a referendum, and that referendum must be held within sixty days, and if just one-third of the producers of the State vote against the bill, the bill will be inactive for the following crop year. I feel that we can all go to bat for this bill since we put it back into the hands of the farmers themselves. It was entirely with them.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the lady from Lancaster, Mrs. Horting.

The SPEAKER. Will the lady from Lancaster permit herself to be interrogated?

Mrs. HORTING. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, I should like to ask the lady from Lancaster if this bill is passed by the House and Senate when it will become effective.

Mrs. HORTING. Mr. Speaker, it will not become effective until the Ohio Legislature passes a similar bill. Incidentally the Ohio House of Representatives passed such a bill by a vote of one hundred sixty-six. I have been in constant communication with Ohio and I have received a telegram from them, on the evening of the 28th after the session closed, in which they said that the bill fell by the wayside in the rush of last minute legislation, but there was no reason to suppose it would not be brought up as a matter of business at a special session, and if that happened, Pennsylvania would be without such a law on its statute books while Ohio would have it.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, I understand that this bill did not pass the Ohio Senate. Is that correct?

Mrs. HORTING. Mr. Speaker, it was not presented to the Senate.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, I thought possibly in Ohio they had one of those reactionary Senates.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. SHUGARTS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 621, Printer's No. 788, on page 27 of today's calendar, bill on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. SHUGARTS.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 621, entitled:

An Act relating to the business of painting paperhanging and decorating defining regulating and providing for the licensing of contractors engaged in such business and for the revocation of such licenses subject to appeal and creating the Painting and Paperhanging Licensing Board as a departmental administrative board in the Department of Labor and Industry

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Clearfield, Mr. Shugarts.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Clearfield permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHUGARTS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, I would like the gentleman from Clearfield to tell us what is the purpose of licensing paperhangers and painters?

Mr. SHUGARTS. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of this bill is to protect legitimate, honest painting and paperhanging contractors. A condition has arisen in the past five or six years in the painting industry and the paperhanging industry whereby any Tom, Dick and Harry may hold himself out as a painter or paperhanger. They bid on a job. They don't even have ladders of their own, but they borrowed them from the fire company. A lot of people have been taken in by just such people as these and the consequences are the job may look all right untill three or four months have passed, and I have absolute personal knowledge that that is true, when they find that they have been gipped.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Clearfield explain what will be necessary to become a licensed paperhanger or painter?

Mr. SHUGARTS. Mr. Speaker, it is necessary to pass the qualifications?

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, has the gentleman from Clearfield any idea of what the qualifications might be?

Mr. SHUGARTS. Yes, I have, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Clearfield tell us what they are?

Mr. SHUGARTS. Mr. Speaker, he would be required to have knowledge of painting, a knowledge of mixing paints, for instance —

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from Clearfield have any idea what the examination to become a beautician is like since they became State regulated.

Mr. SHUGARTS. Mr. Speaker, I never took the examination.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, I do not think that anybody that was a barber that got his license could, and I think the same thing applies to this painters bill, I do not believe that there is any regulation in this bill to show what they would have to do in order to get a license.

Will the gentleman try to tell us just what they would have to do to pass the examination to get a license?

Mr. SHUGARTS. Mr. Speaker, they would have to serve an apprenticeship as a painter or paperhanger.

Mr. TUMELTY. And, Mr. Speaker, what does that apprenticeship of a painter consist?

Mr. SHUGARTS. Mr. Speaker, what the apprenticeship of any trade consist of?

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, apparently the gentleman has interrogated me, and so I would like to answer by saying as far as I know, there are about five or ten different kinds of painters, grainers, enamelers, red letters, and every one of these men is efficient in his own line. How is he going to class them? How is he going to license them? What is it all about?

Mr. SHUGARTS. Mr. Speaker, we are going to license the contractor. The contractor in turn hires these grainers or whatever you want to call them.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, I do not believe that this is a good bill for the simple reason, as I stated before, that there are all kinds of contractors in the painting business and there are all kinds of contractors in the paperhanging business. Now, I have watched in my time various trades, as I call them, sneak themselves into what they called professions. I have watched undertakers, I have watched barbers, I have watched beauticians, I have watched all of these people right down the line all come in and get licensed and I will even include in that statement, so that nobody will be jealous about it, real estate men. They did come in under the line and set up an examination to keep other people out for no other reason, and they made the examination so tough that a fellow couldn't pass it.

In order to be a paperhanger, and I have done some paperhanging myself, you need paper and paste and a brush and a pair of scissors and a certain amount of common sense. If you get stuck in the paper it is your own fault because you certainly can look at the paper that the man is going to put on the wall before he puts it on there. I do not think that giving a fellow a license is going to make him a better paperhanger. So far as contractors are concerned you can make them give a completion bond, you can make them give a bond to live up to specifications and if they do not live up to them you can go after the bonding company. I do not believe that we should license paperhangers and painters. For goodness sake give us a chance to do something without having to pay the State for the right to do it.

Mr. SHUGARTS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not intend to speak at length on this bill, but my friend from Philadelphia, Mr. Tumelty, brought up a point to which I wish to refer. He said that there are all kinds of contractors in the painting business. That is one reason why I introduced this bill because there are all kinds of contractors and a lot of them are illegitimate contractors. They are not good contractors. It is a protection to the public. If a man should get his house painted or his paper hung the contractor is responsible, and if the job does not hold up to specifications he will lose his license.

With that I ask the membership of the House to vote as their conscience dictates and I will be satisfied with the result.

There being no objection House Bill No. 1155, Printer's No. 806, was passed over at the request of Mr. VAN SICKLE.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1839, as follows:

An Act to define the power of the Supreme and Superior Courts in declaring laws enacted by the General Assembly to be unconstitutional

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That hereafter neither the Supreme Court nor the Superior Court of this Commonwealth shall have any power or jurisdiction to declare invalid as offending any provisions of the Constitution of this Commonwealth or any law or part thereof heretofore or hereafter enacted by the General Assembly of this Commonwealth unless six judges of said court shall concur in the decision holding such law or part thereof unconstitutional

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I realize that the hour is very late. Yet I believe this is a very important bill. I rise to oppose it, not to ask anybody to agree with men, particularly do I want the sponsor to feel that I hold him in the highest regard. I do not choose to discuss this bill with relation to the hysteria that is going over the country now about the courts or whether or not it is a good thing for the Legislature to set itself up as the authority as to how it shall tell the courts when our laws are unconstitutional. I should like rather to discuss this bill briefly from the standpoint of the law and the law only. The Constitution of the State of Pennsylvania in Article II, section 1, provides that the Legislative power of this Commonwealth shall be vested in a General Assembly which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives. In Article V of the Constitution, section 1, the judicial power of this Commonwealth shall be vested in a Supreme Court, etc. Much has been written on the question of the encroachment of the Legislature on the power of the judiciary, and the same with reference to the judiciary upon the Legislature. But I think one thing stands out permanently in our law in that in no place in our law has there been sustained the encroachment of one branch of our government upon the other.

The independence of the judiciary has been the one outstanding feature in our American government, and I say to you, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, that House Bill No. 1839 is an attempt to encroach upon the power of the judiciary, and that power is given solely to the judiciary under the Constitution, regarding which the Legislature can have no interference whatsoever. This bill has been amended and in its very title it betrays its own significance. It says "To define the power." I call upon the sponsor to show me how the Legislature can define the power of the Supreme Court, when the judicial power has been given under the Constitution to the Supreme Court and the other courts created by the amendment, and to them alone. If the Legislature can say to the Supreme Court, "You can only declare that law unconstitutional by a vote of six judges," the Legislature can likewise say to the Supreme Court, "You cannot declare a law unconstitutional at all," and I submit to you that nowhere in our whole system can you find anything to sustain such a contention.

I ask the sponsor also, if this bill is enacted into law how will the Supreme Court act upon it. Can the Supreme Court then act upon it in a four to three decision, or will the Supreme Court then be bound by this very bill, by a six to one decision.

I am not going to cite many cases because as I say the text books are voluminous and the reports likewise, on this matter of encroachment of one department of the government upon the other, but I should like to call your attention to a famous case in which one of the great Chief Justices of this Commonwealth, Mr. Chief Justice Black, in Sharpless versus the Mayor of Philadelphia, 21 Pa. 147, laid down this significant precedent: "The General Assembly, therefore, cannot pass any law to conflict with the rightful authority of Congress nor perform a judicial or executive function, nor violate the popular priviledges reserved by the Declaration of Rights, nor change the organic structure of the government nor exercise any other power prohibited in the Constitution."

I submit that nowhere in the Constitution is there given the power to any court to declare the laws of this State unconstitutional. Yet I think that Chief Justice Black hits the thing directly on the head when he says, "The General Assembly cannot change the organic structure of the government." The power of the court by its own rule, by its own decisions, and by its own vote is so inherent in the organic structure of our government that the Legislature cannot interfere with that power.

Therefore, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am voting against this bill because I clearly feel that the bill is unconstitutional, it is an encroachment upon the powers of the court, and that the time has not yet come when either branch of the government can step over and usurp the functinons of the other.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

HOUSE BILL No. 1839 MADE SPECIAL ORDER.

Mr. MARINO. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 1839, Printer's No. 717, be made a special order of business on final passage on Tuesday, May 11, 1937, at 8:30 p. m.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the "nays" appeared to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for, sixty-nine members having voted in the affirmative and sixty-one in the negative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1764, as follows:

An Act relating to certain existing beneficial societies conferring certain rights and powers and duties upon them their officers and members authorizing the payment of benefits by them in the event of sickness accidental disability or death regulating such societies and corporations and limiting the amount for which they may issue membership certificates or policies providing for reserves imposing penalties and repealing certain existing laws and parts of law

(3) For all definite and outstanding claims reserves shall be calculated in accordance with the requirements provided by law for the computation of reserves against unpaid losses in casualty insurance other than compensation or liability insurance

B A sum equal to the amount of the reserves required by this section shall be invested in those investments authorized by law for the investment of the reserve funds of life insurance companies

C The Insurance Commissioner shall each year approve the computation of the reserve liability as of the thirty-first day of December of the preceding year of every beneficial society authorized to make insurance on lives in this Commonwealth

D Whenever any beneficial society doing business in this Commonwealth has not on hand the net value of all policies in force after all other debts and claims against it have been provided for the Insurance Commissioner shall notify such beneficial society to issue no new policies until its funds become equal to its liabilities

Section 6 Investment of Surplus The surplus of a beneficial society or a re-incorporated mutual beneficial society shall be invested in accordance with the requirements provided by law for the investment of the surplus of life insurance companies

Section 7 Annual Statements Penalties A Every beneficial society doing business in this Commonwealth shall annually on or before the first day of March file in the office of the Insurance Commissioner a statement which shall exhibit its financial condition as of the thirty-first day of December of the previous year and its business of that year Such statement shall be in the form prescribed or on forms furnished by the Insurance Commissioner and shall contain such information as shall seem to the Commissioner best adapted for the purpose of eliciting from the beneficial society a true exhibit of its financial condition It shall also within thirty days after requested by the Insurance Commissioner render such additional statement or statements concerning its affairs and financial condition as the Insurance Commissioner may in his discretion require

B Any beneficial society which neglects to make and file its annual statement in the form or within the time required by this section shall forfeit a sum of not more than one hundred dollars for each day during which its failure to file a statement continues and upon notice from the Insurance Commissioner its authority to transact new business shall cease while its default continues

C A beneficial society and the persons who make an oath or subscribe to a false annual statement in its behalf shall severally be punished for wilfully making a false annual statement by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars or more than five thousand dollars A person who makes oath to such false statement with the knowledge that it is false shall be deemed guilty of perjury

Section 8 The Insurance Commissioner or any person or persons he may appoint shall have the power of visitation and examination into the affairs of every beneficial society He may employ such additional assistance from time to time as he may deem necesary or expedient for the purpose of such examination and he or any person or persons he may appoint shall have free access to all the books papers and documents that relate to the business of the society and may summon and qualify as witness under oath and examine its officers and employes or other persons in relation to the affairs transactions and conditions of the society Such examinations shall be made every three (3) years of oftener as he deems it to be necessary and the costs of such examinations as determined by the Insurance Commissioner shall be imposed upon each society so examined

Whenever after examination the Insurance Commissioner is satisfied that any beneficial society is exceeding its powers or is transacting business fraudulently or is in such condition that its further transaction of business will be hazardous to its members or to the public or shall determine to discontinue business the Insurance Commissioner may present the facts relating thereto to the Attorney General who shall if he deems the circumstances warrant proceed against such society in the method prescribed by the laws of this State providing for the liquidation of insolvent or delinquent companies orders or associations transacting any class of insurance

No such proceedings shall be commenced by the Attorney General against any such society until after notice has been duly served on the chief executive officers of the society and a reasonable opportunity given to it on a date to be named in said notice to show cause why such proceedings should not be commenced No application for injunction against or proceedings for the dissolution of or appointment of a receiver for any beneficial society or branch thereof shall be entertained by any court of this Commonwealth unless the same is made by the Attorney General

Section 9 Copies of Policies Contracts and Certificates of Membership to Be Filed With and Approved by The Insurance Commissioner No policy contract or certificate of membership shall be issued or delivered by any beneficial society in this Commonwealth nor applications riders or endorsements used in connection therewith until the forms of the same have been submitted to and formally approved by the Insurance Commissioner under such reasonable rules and regulations as he shall make concerning the terms and provisions contained in such policies contracts or certificates of membership and their submission to and approved by him

Section 10 Solicitors or agents for beneficial societies shall meet the same prerequisites as existing law requires of agents for insurance companies

Section 11 Penalties A Any person or beneficial society violating any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereto shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than five hundred dollars for each violation thereto

B Upon satisfactory evidence of the violation of any of the sections of this act by any beneficial society the Insurance Commissioner may in his discretion pursue any one or more of the following courses of action (1) Suspend or revoke the certicate of authority of such offending beneficial society (2) refuse for a period of not to exceed one year thereafter to issue a new certificate of authority to such beneficial society (3) impose a penalty of not more than one thousand dollars for each and every act in violation of this act

Before the Insurance Commissioner shall take any action as above set forth he shall give written notice to the beneficial society accused of violating the law stating specifically the nature of such alleged violation and fixing a time and place at least ten days thereafter when a hearing of the matter shall be held After such hearing or upon failure of a duly authorized representative of the accused beneficial society to appear at such hearing the Commissioner shall impose such of the above penalties as he deems advisable The beneficial society may appeal from any action by the Commissioner pursuant to the section to the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County

Section 12 Scope of Act Provisions of this act shall not apply to

(1) Beneficial associations which are formed by or for the exclusive benefit of those who at the time of becoming members of such associations are engaged in educational work in any department or district of the public school system of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or in any college or university therein and which issues beneficiary certificates only to such members

(2) Fraternal charitable or secret societies issuing beneficial certificates and paying benefits to their membership through the lodge system

(3) Insurance or relief associations formed by or for the exclusive benefit of employes of corporations or firms or formed by or for the exclusive benefit of members of any religious corporation or association

(4) Associations whose benefits are limited to post-mortem assessments of the members

Section 17 Repealers The act approved the twentieth day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and seventeen) entitled "An act authorizing certain existing beneficial or protective societies heretofore incorporated to re-incorporate for the purpose of making insurance upon the health of individuals and against personal injury and disablement and death regulating such corporations and limiting the amount for which corporations may issue policies and imposing a tax on gross premiums of companies re-incorporated under the provisions of this act" and the act approved the twenty-sixth day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred and five) entitled "An act authorizing the payment of benefits by certain beneficial societies in the event of sickness accident disability or death or in the event of any or all such contingencies and limiting the amount of such benefits providing for reserves of such societies providing penalties and repealing existing laws" and all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

Section 14 The provisions of this act are serverable and if any of the provisions hereof are held to be unconstitutional the decision shall not be construed to impair any other provision of this act It is hereby declared as a legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provisions not been included therein

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1316, Senate Bill No. 243, Printer's No. 81, on page 27 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. LONG.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1316, (Senate Bill No. 243), entitled:

An Act to provide for the registration of certain nurses

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL DROPPED FROM CALENDAR

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, at the request of the sponsor of this bill, I move that it be dropped from the calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary of the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 1038

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg May 6, 1937

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1038, Printer's No. 326, entitled "An Act providing that in all cases where writs of habeas corpus are granted the judge may inquire into the facts of the case including an examination into the record proceedings and evidence produced against the person committed or detained before the committing judge officer magistrate or grand jury and making such records proceedings and evidence available for inspection by the petitioner or his counsel."

This bil would provide that in any case where a writ of habeas corpus has been granted, the judge granting the writ may inquire into the facts of the case. Such inquiry would include an examination into all the proceedings held and evidenced produced before a judge, magistrate, justice of the peace, or other officer sitting as a committing judge or magistrate, or the grand jury. If, after inquiry, the judge would deem such proceedings to have been conducted not in accordance with law, or deem the evidence insufficient, he would be required to discharge the prisoner.

For the purposes of the inquiry, the bill would make available to a petitioner or his counsel the records of all proceedings and testimony, for inspection in the court where the application is made.

The bill would have the effect of compelling the Commonwealth to disclose its entire case, by making mandatory the availability to a petitioner of the records of all proceedings and the testimony therein.

The principal objection to the bill lies in the fact that counsel for petitioners could file petitions for such writs merely for the purpose of forcing the State to disclose its evidence, and thus unduly burden the prompt administration of justice.

I feel that under the present state of the law the rights of imprisoned persons are amply protected, and although I am wholeheartedly in favor of any safeguard against possible unjust restraints of freedom, I believe that any benefits which might be obtained under this bill would be far outweighed by its detrimental consequences to society and the administration of justice.

For these reasons, the bill is not approved.

GEORGE H. EARLE.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

BILL AND VETO LAID ON TABLE.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill together with the veto message of the Governor, be laid upon the table.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF HOUSE BILLS Nos. 177 and 1051.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May 6, 1937.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed the following:

House Bill No. 177, Printer's No. 176, entitled "An Act to amend section two of the act approved the twenty-second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 682), entitled as amended "An act relating to domestic animals, and providing for their appraisement when condemned to prevent the spread of disease; and regulating payments by the Commonwealth in such cases, and the payment of salvage by butchers," as amended, by changing the amount of compensation in certain cases.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

BILL INTRODUCED

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent at this time to introduce a bill. I might say, Mr. Speaker, in asking unanimous consent to offer this bill, that it relates to requesting reports from children's aid societies in connection with the placing of children. You will recall that early in the session, after an atrocious crime had been committed, the murder of a ward of the Children's Aid Society in Franklin County, I introduced a resolution and it was just recently that we obtained a report after the closing date for introduction of bills. It was just last week that this case was brought to a finish and you perhaps noticed by the press that there was a first degree murder conviction in the case of a foster-father and of manslaughter in the case of the mother. This bill is being introduced merely at the request of the Department of Welfare to require a report of the homes in which these wards are placed and the approval of same.

Mr. MOOMAW asked and obtained unanimous consent to introduce a bill the title of which was read as follows:

An Act requiring children's aid societies and other societies and organizations placing and boarding out children to make certain reports to the Department of Welfare and secure the approval of said department to all placements and boarding out of children; and providing penalties.

RESOLUTION

SENATE RESOLUTION SERIAL No. 118.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Senate Resolution Serial No. 118.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the Senate, May 5, 1937.

Whereas, The present Anthracite Mine Code was enacted more than forty years ago since which time mining conditions have changed materially; and

Whereas, It appears that the development of the mining laws has not kept step with the development of this industry and are in need of study and revision; therefore be it

Resolved, (If the House of Representatives concur), That a joint legislative committee is hereby created which shall be composed of three persons appointed by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, and four persons appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, whose duty it shall be to make a thorough study and prepare a complete revision and restatement of the laws regulating anthracite mines in this Commonwealth, and report the same to the General Assembly at its session in the year 1939, not later than February first;

Resolved, That the said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the had and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee, and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Yourishin.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Luzerne permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. YOURISHIN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, isn't there an anthracite mine code now in the Senate?

Mr. YOURISHIN. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, if there is an anthracite mine code now in the Senate what is the purpose of creating a commission to study the laws and clarify them?

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, I might say that the mine code which was presented in the Senate changes certain features of the present mine law. In other words, I mean that it repeals the present mine law, repeals the miners' certificate law, that the miners have been dearly holding on to for the last forty years. There are certain sections in the present mine law that we would like to have in the present mine code as introduced. Not only that, but while it repeals the mine law it does not repeal any of the administrative codes for some years back, wherein the administrative codes have added to or taken away on several occasions from the present mine law, and the miners want the mine law clarified into one section so they will know just what they are working under.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, could that not be accomplished by an amendment to this code?

Mr. YOURISHIN. No, Mr. Speaker, it could not, because it would take some time to dig out the administrative codes and so forth. Not only that but the miners want to try to agree with the mine owners on the method in which mining shall continue in the future.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I think that the gentleman is not in favor of this mine code as introduced.

Mr. YOURISHIN. That is right, Mr. Spekaer.

Mr. TURNER. And, Mr. Speaker, the gentleman will not be in favor of its being passed over.

Mr. YOURISHIN. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in the resolution?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

RESOLUTION

Mr. WAGNER offered a resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 10, 1937.

Whereas, In the tragedy which destroyed the famous Hindenberg at Lakehurst recently, Dr. Birger Brink of Stockholm, Sweden, lost his life; and

Whereas, Dr. Brink was making a hurried trip to America for the purpose of conversing with the Governor of this Commonwealth concerning the Three Hundredth Anniversary of the Swedish Settlement in Pennsylvania, and in order that return connections might be made, Major Camey Vinet had been ordered to fly an aeroplane to Lakehurst and to transport Dr. Brink to Philadelphia, where he was to meet the Governor; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That the Members of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in recognition of the service Dr. Birger Brink undertook to perform to help to keep alive for the people of Pennsylvania its early Swedish history, record this token of their sincere appreciation, and extend to the grief stricken members of his family their sincere sympathy in the loss they have sustained through this tragedy;

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the members of the family of Dr. Brink in Stockholm, Sweden, by the Chief Clerk of the House.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. DUBBS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. DUBBS. Mr. Speaker, it is a matter of deep regret to me that I should have to take the time of this House now to discuss a question which after all is of no great moment.

I wish to bring to your attention an editorial which was published in the Evening Bulletin, an evening paper published in the City of Philadelphia, on Wednesday, I believe, May 5, 1937. That editorial challenges the integrity of this House and of me. Consequently I feel that it is imperative that I read the editorial to this House and make such statements that I can in answer thereto.

The name of the editorial is: "Dubious Tax Legislation," and the editorial goes on to state:

"In view of the obstacles to safe purchase of real estate which would be interposed by the Dubbs bill, awaiting Senatorial action after passage by the House at Harrisburg, it is in order for its proponents to make public explanation of their purposes.

By the elimination of nineteen words from existing law prescribing procedure for the collection of tax and municipal assessment claims against properties this measure would make it possible for municipal authorities to permit delinquent taxpayers to remain in possession of their realty indefinitely, and to hold unrecorded claims which might subsequently bob up to plague purchasers after most painstaking search of titles.

No measure which would extend the degree of discrimination permitted in tax collection, or widen the openings to favoritism, or invest realty transactions with further hazards, can be in the public interest. The objectives of the Dubbs bill call for elucidation."

Members of the House, in attacking this editorial I hope you will pardon my being somewhat academic in attacking it from two standpoints. First, I shall attack it extrinsically and then I shall attack it intrinsically. In attacking it extrinsically I shall have to burden you with a little history. In the early part of February, 1937, I was called to the northern part of the 35th Ward of the City of Philadelphia by a meeting of citizens. They said to me that the sanitary conditions in that particular part of the city of Philadelphia were deplorable, and the reason they were deplorable was because they have no sewers, and they asked me if it would be possible to provide by legislation issuing from Harrisburg for the laying of sewers and some means of paying for them over a period of ten years. Now, members of the House, there seems to be some misunderstanding about this matter and I hope you will pardon me if I take this opportunity to explain to you what is done in Philadelphia about sewers. The City of Philadelphia by its Council orders that sewers shall be laid in a certain district, then a certain sum of money is appropriated by Council to pay for some part of the laying of those sewers, and then the balance of the cost of the laying of the sewers is borne by the persons who own the property along which the sewers lie. An assessment is made which is usually four dollars per lineal front foot, for the laying of the sewers. This is an extremely convenient method of laying sewers in the usual places in Philadelphia. But in the northeast section of Philadelphia we are not exactly urban, we are suburban or rural and there are some people who own farms there and those farms have a front footage of approximately four or five hundred feet. It would be a tremendous burden to those people to have to pay the sum of four dollars per front foot immediately. Let me go further and say, because I understand that in other counties a different rule obtains, that in Philadelphia after the assessment has been made the assessment is assigned to some contractor; that contractor files a municipal claim at the rate of four dollars a front foot, and he can proceed on that municipal claim and if the money is not paid immediately he can sell the real estate.

Now, when I was called to the northeast section of the City of Philadelphia the question was put before me as to how it might be possible to lay the sewers there and pay for them in ten years, and I will say to you, members of the House, that my experience had always been on the other side of the fence, that I had represented the contractor, and at first thought I did not know exactly how any such installment measure could be arranged. However, I came back to Harrisburg and I talked with various members of the House. On last Wednesday I heard a rule of this House enunciated by the Speaker, that it is not proper to mention the name of any particular member of the House, but I will say that a member of the House from Delaware came to me and said he knew something about this problem. He said it was possible to pass an act which would enable the municipality to issue what is known as non-debt revenue bonds and the reason for issuing the non-debt revenue bonds is this, that if the sewers were to be laid in Philadelphia and if the householders could not pay for them immediately then it was incumbent upon some one to finance the laying of the sewers immediately, and the City of Philadelphia was unable to do that because its borrowing capacity was exceeded. It was therefore necessary to finance the laying of the sewers in some way, and for that reason I introduced House Bill No. 812, which provides for the issuing of non-debt revenue bonds, which provides for the sale of the bonds and the raising of the money for the laying of the sewers without any connection whatever with the borrowing capacity of the City of Philadelphia. In connection with that I will say that the gentleman from Delaware also made an arrangement with me whereby House Bill No. 60, which provides for sewer rentals, should be made applicable to cities of the first class. By these means we were enabled to raise the money, the city was enabled to raise the money without reference to its borrowing capacity for the laying of any sewer in the City of Philadelphia. Then in connection with that I introduced another bill and you members passed in unanimously. I refer to House Bill No. 1477 which enables the City of Philadelphia to make assessments for the laying of sewers and provides for the payment of the sewers within a period of ten years.

Now, members of the House, this was not done in one day and it was not done by me alone but it was done by me in conjunction with the gentleman from Delaware, of whom I spoke, together with the City Solicitor of the City of Philadelphia. It took a great deal of figuring out and we finally brought about this system whereby the sewers could be layed and financed by the City of Philadelphia. But the trouble was that they had to be financed over a period of ten years and that brings us down to House Bill No. 1474, which the Evening Bulletin says is such a bill that the objectives of the bill call for elucidation.

Members of the House, House Bill No. 1474 simply provides this: Under the Municipal Lien Act of 1923 it is provided that when a tax lien has been on file for a period of five years, its lien on the property can be revived by the mere filing of what is known as a suggestion and averment of default. A suggestion and averment of default is a mere statement made by the attorney for the claimant, which is filed of records and costs one dollar. Oddly enough under the Act of 1923 there was no such provision for municipal claims. It was necessary that a municipal claim at the end of five years have a certain writ issued, which is known as a sci. fa. sur municipal claim, and if the owner of the property could not be found it was necessary that this sci. fa. sur be advertised in the newspapers at a cost of $23.75. When we have reached the point in our conversations concerning the sewer liens in Philadelphia we found that we had prescribed some means by which the money could be raised and by which the payments could be made over a period of ten years, but when we were faced with the problem of having a municipal lien against the property which would last for ten years, we found that under the existing laws it would cost a householder an additional $23.75. It was therefore suggested to me that I make some amendment to the Act of 1923 and I made that amendment, so that under the Act of 1923 a suggestion could be filed which would cost only one dollar instead of $23.75.

Now, members of the House, that is all that House Bill 1474 was ever designed to do. There is nothing particularly dangerous about it, and I wish to say further, in connection with the editorial in the Bulletin that it is not tax legislation but it has merely to do with assessments which are entirely different from taxes. It will never do any harm to the people who search titles because the only difference is that whenever you look over the judgment index you will find the word "suggestion" instead of the words "sci. fa."

This editorial is not extremely complementary to me but I do not mind that particularly. What I am worrying about is this, that House Bill 1474 is one of the most important links in a series of bills which will obtain sewer construction for the citizens in the northeast part of Philadelphia. It is now in the Senate and I hope that the members of this House will use what influence they may have with the Senators to see that this bill pass the Senate without any undue difficulty.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

Legislative Journal.

Session 1937. 132d of the General Assembly.

Vol. 21. HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, MAY 11, 1937. No. 56.

SENATE

TUESDAY, MAY 11, 1937

The Senate met at 12 o'clock noon.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. GEORGE WALKER BUCKNER, LL.D. offered the following prayer:

We would enter into Thy gates with Thanksgiving, O God, Our Father, and into Thy courts with praise; for Thou art good; Thy mercy is everlasting; and Thy truth endureth to all generations. Look down in pity upon our lives, often so detached from Thee. Give us a quickening sense of Thy presence. Bring to our hearts a conviction that we know nothing, if we know not Thee. As children, we come asking for Thy sustaining bread, for Thy guiding spirit, for wisdom and strength and for Thy sufficient grace.

Be merciful unto us and bless us, and cause Thy face to shine upon us. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. LAW, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

RESOLUTION EXTENDING TO FAMILY OF DR. BIRGER BRINK, OF STOCKHOLM, SWEDEN

HOUSE BILLS FOR CONCURRENCE

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives which was twice read as follows:

In the House of R presentatives, May 10, 1937.

Whereas, In the tragedy which destroyed the famous Hindenberg at Lakehurst recently, Dr. Birger Brink of Stockholm, Sweden, lost his life; and

Whereas, Dr. Brink was making a hurried trip to America for the purpose of conversing with the Governor of the Commonwealth concerning the Three Hundredth Anniversary of the Swedish Settlement in Pennsylvania, and in order that return connections might be made, Major Camey Pinet had been ordered to fly an aeroplane to Lakehurst and to transport Dr. Brink to Philadelphia, where he was to meet the Governor; Therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That the members of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in recognition of the service Dr. Brink undertook to perform to help keep alive for the people of Pennsylvania its early Swedish history, record this token of their sincere appreciation, and extend to the grief stricken members of his family their sincere sympathy in the loss they have sustained through this tragedy;

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the members of the family of Dr. Brink in Stockholm, Sweden, by the Chief Clerk of this House.

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires concurrent resolutions to be referred to an appropritae committee, be suspended and that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate concur in the same?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Chairman of the Committee on Finance, Mr. Rankin.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rankin, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rankin, why it is that the title of this act has been amended by taking out the notice that this bill taxes not only the personal property, but also the value of certain equitable interests.

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, I do not know why it was taken out.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, when this bill was before the Senate, as the members will recall, we discovered that for some unknown reason the draftsman of the bill, and this is known as an Administration bill, it removed the provision which was designed to prevent the removal outside of the State of Pennsylvania of personal property for the purpose of escaping this tax. The attention of the Senate was called to the fact that this tax without that provision enabled wealthy people, who were able to hire lawyers, to move their personal property into a trust fund outside of this State and escape the personal property tax. When that was called to the attention of this Senate, we inserted a provision which had been inserted two years ago taxing the equitable interest of such personal property. The act was also very properly amended by amending the title as well.

Mr. President, we also amended the title giving notice that this clause was in the bill. The bill went over to the House for concurrence in our amendments and it was approved by the House and sent to the Governor; then, very quietly, a resolution is brought into this Senate to recall the bill from the Governor for the purpose of amendments, we discovered today that the amendment slipped in is taking out of the title the notice that we are taxing this proprety that is being moved out of the State of Pennsylvania to escape the tax.

Now, Mr. President, it is not necessary to argue that the title must give notice as to what this act does. I ask the members of the Senate to consider who is back of this attempt to permit the wealthy people of this Commonwealth to move their property outside of the State of Pennsylvania to escape this tax. There is somebody in this Administration who is going by hook or crook to make it possible that the wealthy people of this State escape this personal property tax by creating trusts outside of the State. They first tried to do it by taking this clause out of the act entirely, and when the chairman of the Finance Committee of this Senate asked the Department of Revenue to give them a resume of the changes in this act, they had before them, they never mentioned the fact that they are taking out this provision to prevent the removal of property out of Pennsylvania, and when we catch them on that and the Senate restores it, then they slip in another amendment to take it out of the title and make it ineffective.

Mr. President, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar until amendments can be prepared striking out the brackets which remove from the title this exemption of property set up in the trusts outside of the State of Pennsylvania.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, will state his point of order.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, this bill is on the calendar for the purpose of concurrence in the House amendments, and the only question before the Senate is the concurrence in those amendments.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order is not well taken. You can postpone action on it or permit it to go over in order.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I will withdraw my motion and ask the Senate to refuse to concur in the House amendments. The issue can be made in this way: The House, as I understand it when it is recalled from the Governor, has put in an amendment striking out from the title this notice that we are taxing trust estates outside of the State of Pennsylvania. I, therefore, move, Mr. President, that we refuse to concur in the amendments of the House.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. The motion is unnecessary in the judgment of the Chair. A direct vote on the amendments will determine the issue one way or the other; there is an affirmative motion before the Senate.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, state whether or not it is true when this bill originally came before the Senate, there was no provision dealing with a tax on these trust estates outside of the State of Pennsylvania?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, that is correct.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, and therefore, at that time there was no such provision in the bill.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, that is correct.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, will the Senator from Tioga state whether it is not true that that provision was put in and a notice to that effect was put in the title.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, for the information of my colleague the Senator from Philadelphia, I desire to call attention to the fact that notice of the amendment was inserted by my motion restoring the clause. My motion did not include, through error, also an amendment to the title. In other words, the title referred to was retained, and we merely inserted in the body of the bill giving notice of the taxing of equitable interests, then the Chairman of the Senate Committee on Finance handed a further amendment to amend the title to see that this was included in the body, it very properly had to be included in the title, so that we again amended it and put this provision in the title, and then it was sent over to the House with the body of the bill amended and the title amended, and the House concurred in these amendments. Then it was, for some reason recalled from the Governor and again taken out of the title.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, will the Senator state whether or not it is true that the amendments inserted are not now in the bill.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, the amendment is in the body of the bill but left out of the title. After it was recalled from the Governor there was slipped in an amendment taking out of the title the notice that we are taxing equitable interests.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, will the Senator from Tioga state whether this following provision in the title gives sufficient notice, namely, that the bills is for the "collection of said taxes and penalties and interest thereon, and modifying and further defining certain exemptions from said taxes."

Is that not sufficient notice that certain exemptions are permitted by this act?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, in answer to the Senator from Philadelphia, I wish to call the attention of the Senate to a matter which I think might answer the Senator's question. The title read before we inserted these amendments several weeks ago "An Act to provide revenue for State purposes, imposing taxes upon certain classes of personal property, providing for the assessment, collection and lien of the same, and the distribution of the proceeds thereof." Then we inserted "And on the value of certain equitable interests," so that it then read: "An Act to provide revenue for State purposes, imposing taxes upon certain classes of personal property and on the value of certain equitable interests." Now, that has to do with the cause of the insertion in this bill. After the recall from the Governor, "And on the value of certain equitable interests" is removed from this act, so that the act again reads "Imposing a tax upon certain classes of personal property," although they have not in this printer's number 843, restored the brackets which we took out by the amendment on the floor of the Senate several weeks ago.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, and equitable interests are still taxed in this bill?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, in the body of the bill, but they are taken out of the title, and everyone knows Mr. President, that an act is void which attempts to do something of which the title does not give notice that it is doing, and I submit, Mr. President, with that amendment out of the title, anybody that moves his property down to Delaware to get out of this eight-mill tax will simply have to raise before the court the question that there is no notice here of taxing the value of certain equitable interests."

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this bill and this title are in exactly the same condition as they were in 1936, when we taxed equitable interests. As a matter of fact, the title and the provision were in, and it did not require any special notice, and as the bill is framed, it takes in certain personal property, and sufficient notice has been given. The Attorney General's Department is evidently of the opinion that this title as presently constituted covers the subject matters of the bill, and I think that no lawyer who wants to bring the question on the matter should not use it for the purpose of making that political capital. They can understand when the bill taxes personal property that they are only taxes for two additional years imposed on ground rents making further provision for the assessment and collection of said taxes, and it is sufficient notice to the world as to what this bill contains. It is in the same condition as it was in 1936 when this bill was voted on and passed by the Senate and when the same provision which is now in the bill was in the bill in its original form, and I do not think the Senate should hold up action on this bill now because of the Senator's objection. For two years we have worked under the old bill and it taxes the same subject matter.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, in answer to the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, I want to call his attention that they have not collected any taxes on property that has been moved out of the State in trusts; I have been so advised by the Revenue Department. Certainly no one can deny that this matter was in the title in the original bill and that we then attempted to bring in this property by putting in a provision to prevent them from escaping taxation and no one can deny that this subject matter was in this title and that it makes it very much clearer.

I would like to ask the Senator from Philadelphia if it is not a fact that the ownership of any personal property located outside of the State and the ownership of any equitable interests in that personal property are taxed. It is a pretty close question.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the Supreme Court will have to have the last guess on that.

Now, Mr. President, are we going to, in one breath, insert a clause designed to prevent people from removing property out of the State of Pennsylvania, and in another breath take out an amendment to the title and fix it so that there is a grave question whether or not you have given them notice. Mr. President, I say when you consider the insert in this bill and how this stuff was taken out and the Senate Committee on Finance never notified about it, there is a "nigger in the wood pile." There is something wrong about this personal property tax, there is somebody who wants to escape taxation under this bill, and I say right before the Senate now, we ought to determine whether we are going to help them or not.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I think that is a very unfair statement; however, as we want everybody to vote for this bill, I ask that the bill go over until tomorrow.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 413, as follows:

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Chairman of the Committee on Agriculture.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Delaware, Mr. Heyburn, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I wish the chairman of the Committee on Agriculture would explain briefly the purpose of the Act of Congress referred to in this bill.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, this bill, Senate Bill 594, House Bill 744, is merely an expression of assent to the Federal Appropriation, appropriated to the Land Grant College, State College. In former years, I understand, the appropriation had to be matched by Pennsylvania and under this present bill it will be a gift from the Government of the United States without any matching whatsoever, on the part of Pennsylvania. It is merely a bill to accept that appropriation from the Government.

Law,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 715 (House Bill No. 1032), entitled:

An Act to amend section four hundred ninety-two of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand two hundred seventy-eight) entitled "An act relating to counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto" as added providing for county airports.

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which this bill passed second reading.

Mr. PIERSON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring.

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading?

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the title was agreed to.

Mr. PIERSON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring.

Will the Senate agree to the title?

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the second section of the bill was agreed to.

Mr. PIERSON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring.

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the first section of the bill was agreed to.

Mr. PIERSON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring.

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, I move to amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 492), page 2, line 11, by inserting after the word "lease" the following: "or"; amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 492), page 2, lines 11 and 12, by striikng out the words "or condemnation proceedings"; amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 492), page 2, line 17, by inserting after the word "lease" the following: "or"; amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 492), page 2, lines 17 and 18, by striking out the words "condemnation proceedings"; amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 492), page 2, lines 22, 23 and 24, by striking out all of said lines.

Mr. PIERSON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I wish to interrogate the Senator from Warren, Mr. Chapman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Warren, Mr. Chapman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, will the Senator from Warren, Mr. Chapman, state the purpose of the amendment.

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, the purpose is to strike out the power of eminent domain.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, it seems to me if we take away the power of eminent domain in the acquisition of airports we practically destroy the purpose of the bill, because you allow some individual who desires to tie up the construction of the airport by insisting on a large premium for the purchase of his property to hold it up for ten times what it is worth; in other words, it gives him an opportunity to practically blackmail the official body constructing the airport; in fact buying his property at his own price.

And the question recurring.

Will the Senate agree to the section?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. SHAPIRO and Mr. MUNDY, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—17

Bean,	Ealy,	Jacobs,	Rupp,
Buckman,	Gelder,	Mallery,	Salus,

Haluska,	Law,

So the question was determined in the negative.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The second section of the bill was read as follows and agreed to.

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final anactment.

The title of the bill was read as follows and agreed to.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 855 on third reading entitled:

An Act supplementing the act approved the twenty-eighth day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six (P. L. 79) and authorizing the Pennsylvania Historical Commission of the Department of Public Instruction to provide plan prepare supervise and carry out a suitable program within and without Pennsylvania for the commemoration by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania of the three hundredth anniversary of the earliest settlement the first courts of law and the first capital within what is now Pennsylvania and making an appropriation therefor out of the General Fund.

go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 860, entitled:

An Act supplementing the act of July twenty-second one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six (P. L. 70) and authorizing the Pennsylvania Historical Commission of the Department of Public Instruction to provide plan prepare supervise and carry out a suitable program throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and elsewhere for the Celebration of the one hundred and fiftieth Anniversary of the Framing the Signing the Ratification by Pennsylvania and the Final Adoption and Establishment of the Constitution of the United States during the years one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven one thousand nine hundred thirty-eight and one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine and making an appropriation.

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, I appreciate the purpose of this bill which the sponsor had in mind when he introduced it and I call the attention of the Senators to the fact that this bill carries with it an appropriation of $100,000 for "proper observance of the Anniversary of the Framing, the Signing, the Ratification and the Establishment of the Constitution of the United States and the Establishment of the United States of America under the said Constitution * * *"

I think Mr. President, that the members of the Senate in the last days of this Session should stop to consider the appropriations that are asked for in these bills with the interest of the taxpayer at heart, in the State of Pennsylvania. and with the purpose of at least making some efforts to relieve the taxpayer of his burden. I think they should exercise their judgment by defeating these appropriations. It is inconceivable that this Senate will today appropriate $100,000 of our taxpayers' money for this purpose even as worthy as it may be, and I still think that the State of Pennsylvania cannot afford to appropriate this money.

And the question recurring.

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 860

go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 974, (House Bill No. 1570), entitled:

An Act to promote safety for the travelling public on State highways to extend the responsibility for subsidence of such highways by the failure of vertical and lateral support and declaring said subsidence a public nuisance to provide for inspection of mine maps by the Department of Highways and the furnshing to said Department of copies of such mine maps in certain cases to authorize entry by the Department of Highways into mines in certain cases and to provide for notices to the Department of Highways of certain mining operations under or adjacent to highways and providing penalties

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, this bill, Senate Bill No. 874, House Bill No. 1570, has serious implications for the people of those counties which are engaged in coal mining operations. This bill provides: 'Whenever a State highway or any part thereof subsides by reason of the failure of vertical or lateral support thereof the subsidence is hereby constituted and declared a public nuisance which may be abated by appropriate proceedings in law or in equity against the then existing owner of the subjacent or adjacent strata as the case may be and in the event that the Department of Highways restores the surface of such highway the underlying owners of the subjacent or adjacent strata both at the time the vertical or lateral support was removed and at the time the subsidence occurred and their respective assignees, lessees or grantees shall be jointly and severally liable for the cost of restoration".

No, Mr. President, in these various coal mining counties, as is well known during the last ten years or so, and since the coal has been mined out, the roads have been widened and straightened out and relocated, so that if the present owners of the land be made liable for any cost of restoration which may be made by the Department of Highways, it may entail very serious expense upon the unseen purchasers, and I think that this bill should be further considered:

BILL RECOMMITTED

Therefore, I move that the bill be recommitted to the Committee on Highways for further study.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

An Act imposing upon the Board of Revision of Taxes in cities of the first class the duty of reading water meters authorizing the employment of assistants for the performance of such duties fixing the salaries of such assistants and repealing inconsistent acts

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator form Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, if this is one of a series of bills about to be introduced to have additonal employees have been ripped out of office, or whether this is only the only bill on the subject.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President to the first one I say, this is one of the bills which the Republican organization used as a false argument that it was an effort on the part of the Democratic party to increase jobs. What this bill does is this: at the present time the Receiver of Taxes employes 58 men who profess to read water meters in the City of Philadelphia. When the bill was passed by this Senate which abolished the office of Receiver of Taxes, they left the reading of water meters open. This bill transfers the function of watermeter readers to the Board of Revision of Taxes, and creates instead of 58 jobs, 30 jobs to read the water meters, and instead of $1,750 to $2.000 a year, this bill limits the number of employees to 30 and fixes the salaries as not less than $1,000 nor more than $1,500.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I would like to further interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia. Mr. Shapiro, permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator if he does not know as a matter of fact that the water meter readers only receive a salary of $1,500 and there is none of them who gets more than $1,500.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, that is not so.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I want to read a report received direct form the Receiver of Taxes of Philadelphia, and I think he ought to know what his men get in the way of salaries. I might say to the members of the Senate, that I am not here opposing the hiring of these 30 men, I think that is absolutely necessary for the benefit of the people, and there is no question about that.

On the present pay roll there are 64 employees, water meter inspectors at salaries of $1,500, 39 of whom are on the streets reading meters, the others are detailed in the offices of the Department for the purpose of making out the bills and readings, and this Department is very busy. There are 450,000 actual readings—covering the villages, 250,000 in the buildings and 255,000 others. There are not 64 men employed in the readings at the present time, there are only 39. These figures show 9 less, and as I understand it when the tax office was ripped out, we were led to believe that all of these offices were to be abolished and nothing was mentioned about these 30 water meter inspectors, is that right.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, that is not correct.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I want to ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, if at that time he mentioned he would make application here before the Senate for the privilege of appointing 30 new water meter inspectors.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, if the Senator will read the report of the Legislative Investigating Committee, he will find that the City of Cleveland where they have 482,000 properties they read 482,000 water meters with 33 men and the City of Philadelphia 243,000 meters in 477,000 properties, these water meter readers in Philadelphia read the meters only twice a year, while in Cleveland they read them four times a year and they present bills to the various property owners. The Senator will find in their recommendation that the water meter reading can be done by not more than 30 men, and these are not thirty new jobs because, besides these 63 water meter readers there are water meter clerks, and many of them receiving as high as $2,000 a year. There are some 352 jobs in the Receiver of Taxes office. These jobs by the creation of the new department are entirely eliminated with the exception of 20 men in the Treasurer's office and 10 men in the Controller's office who will neccessarily take over the work. These 30 men are substituted for the 63 men. They will read the water meters in Philadelphia and have no difficulty in doing it if they are on their feet instead of in chairs in the office in the Receiver of Taxes.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, do I understand from the Senator that this is the only bill that will be introduced in the Senate for additional help to do that work?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, certainly, the report shows that.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, the report seems so, but does the Senator for Phialdelphia, Mr. Shapiro, say so?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, certainly, there is no other bill in contemplation.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, is there any other bill in contemplation, for the additional help for the City Treasurer to do this particular work.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, no the City Treasurer is authorized by law to hire such persons as clerks that he may require to perform this special function, created by the Legislature.

Mr. SALUS Mr. President (then as I understand it in the City of Philadelphia, the City Treasurer has the right to employ as many people as he may deem necessary to do all this work.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, he always had that right.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, he always had that right?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, yes.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, so that he now has a blanket authority to employ all the people he may deem necessary to perform the duties formerly performed by the Receiver of Taxes in Philadelphia—he has that blanket authority?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, that is right. There is nothing we can do about it, there is nothing in the law to prevent him from employing as many as he needs.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, there is absolutely no question but that these 30 men are necessary in the City o

Philadelphia to perform this work. As a matter of fact, 30 men cannot do the work but when we were told on the floor of this Senate by the various investigating committees that more progress was going to be make in the City of Philadelphia and a million dollars would be saved by ripping out the Municipal Court in Philadelphia, when as a matter of fact their own budget calls for $800,000, we were told that 357 jobs in the Receiver of Taxes office are going to be disposed of and we were told that 37 men were going to do this work, whether the members of this Senate believe that or not, my best thought is that no man on this floor will believe a word of it.

It was simply an effort and excuse to eliminate these officers by ripping them out of office. Now you have before you the facts, and the facts are these: that for these special jobs they come to the Legislature and get authority for the other jobs to do the work that must be performed in the future. The flood gates are open and they will appoint as long as there are applicants for jobs, and instead of being saved money, the City of Philadelphia, due to these ripper bills I warn you now and say that is the beginning of the bankruptcy of Philadelphia; that before the end of this year we will be in such a position that every man who holds a bond of the City of Philadelphia will sell that bond at far below its par value. This is the beginning of the end, and the rippers in Philadelphia are for the purpose of political patronage.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I will agree with the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. SALUS, in one respect, his is not the beginning of the end of Philadelphia—Philadelphia is bankrupt now and the people of Philadelphia ought to know it, the only difficulty is that the Republican Council in Philadelphia and the Mayor are trying to do some good work, but are afraid to attempt it. I am not afraid to attempt it, and I think it would be much better if the citizens of Philadelphia were aware that the City of Philadelphia is bankrupt. Now, I know that when a business man owes $10,000,000. more than he can take in next year, he considers himself bankrupt. I know when a man's assets are a $1,000,000 less than his liabilities, he considers himself bankrupt. I can see no reason why we should pay 96 for bonds when according to the assets of the City of Philadelphia, they are not worth 75. I agree with the Senator about bankruptcy except as to the point where it begins and ends. I disagree with him in that what we have done now is to increase the costs. First, when he speaks about the Municipal Court, when he speaks about the Budget of that Court being $800,000, he refers only to that which is the pay roll; $250,000 additional money is appropriated to the Municipal Court in three different departments in the City of Philadelphia, including $40,000 rent for the building that they occupy, $20,000 for heat, and $6,000 for clerks of the Court, all tucked away in bundles in other departments so that you cannot notice it. Those things have been brought to light; my friend's argument of $800,000 is good, but his arithmetic is bad. In spite of the evidence that we have shown, not only that the same Republican party which is now talking about our attempt to bankrupt the City of Philadelphia, have used $1,200,000.00 since this Committee began investigating, out of the so-called Emergency Loan, allowed by the 2% under the institution. They used that for current debt. In December they made up their budget and in January they awarded $20,000.00 additional to the Clerk of the Quarter Sessions Courts, and they took that $20,000.00 at that time by transfer from the Emergency Loan. I could go on reciting such details for some time. Everybody knows that they have used up over a million dollars in that way since the budget closed, and yet the Republican has the acrontery to expect the people to believe that we are poor economists. When we produced evidence three years ago that forty-ight thousand dollars was used up by false payrolls and false affidavits, appropriated back in 1919, for copying books and records in the Recorder of Deeds Office, when the Recorder of Deeds himself admitted that these were not properly held as records. We showed him evidence that the WPA was re-copying these same records. He admitted that the $48,000.00 was being used as a payroll of the employees of the office, and we showed him that the money was being used illegally, and the controller stepped up the payroll. They proceeded to get out the Council a voucher and have the $48,000.00 transferred from the County Commissioners where it was held under the act of 1919 that the Recorder of Deeds could use the money, so that instead of saving $48,000.00 when we pointed out that the records were being copied by WPA, they used the $48,000.00 and increased the cost by that amount. They spent $500,000.00 in three years time under the act of 1919, for the purpose of recopying the records. Two thousand records cost $500,000.00 to recopy by the Republicans, not by the Democrats. but by the Republicans and for the last two years, in addition to that the WPA had eighty men recopying these same records and yet these people talk economy right in Philadelphia. It was a parade for the political workers of Philadelphia, and they used this money in any way they deemed necessary to keep these workers in line for political purposes. They say that the Democrats are trying to create more jobs; if they do, they will not last as long as the Republican Party did I say to the Senate that there is nothing to this argument; we are limiting them as far as we can, and that these people employ only 30 men instead of 68. We are cutting down the salaries from $115,000 to $45,000; if that be ripping, let us have some more of it.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I am very glad that the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, has also warned the Democratic party and the citizens of Philadelphia, that they should be careful what they do in the future, and in every argument we put up, they come back and say "what did the Republicans do or did not do. In all my experience in this Senate I have had the unfortunate position of being with the minority. When I was with the Republicans, I was in the minority, today I am not with these and I am with the minority. Many years ago on the floor of this Senate I talked on the theme that has been followed by ministers and by politicians and used in national and local platforms since that day. My theme was "stop, look and listen." I spoke to the Republicans and I said "stop, look and listen," and I am saying to the Democrates, "stop, look and listen," before it is too late, because a terrible wreck will come to them. In every piece of reform legislation, we have heard of the great savings that are coming to the taxpayers of the city of Philadelphia, and where are these savings? They rip out the Municipal Court where the salaries were $110,000.00 a year and they create new courts with salaries with $144,000.00 a year. Where are the great savings of the Democratic party. In every ripping they have done they have increased the salaries of the officers in the new institution. If this be saving, God save us from our savings. I say to you and I say it now, that there is no question in the minds of the people in Philadelphia that all these rippers were for political patronage they are noe done to save the citizens of Philadelphia a single penny, they are done for the purpose of creating political jobs. I find no great fault with them for that if they stay within bounds, if they would only come out and say "this is politics, this is not business, we have no desire to save the taxpayers of Philadelphia, we are going to get control, and being in authority, under that rule I find no great fault with it. I would like to see some every-day common honesty shown in this proposition, and say to the public of Philadelphia, "we are in authority, we are going to grab everything in sight; it belongs to them, but they should do it honestly.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I hate to think that I come from a bankrupt city, Mr. President, and that we have no future; at least we are going to celebrate the Sesqui Centennial. If however, there is a mortgage on City Hall, and if there is to be a receiver, I expect to use my influence to have Senator Shapiro appointed a Receiver.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, certainly.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, say whether or not it is true that at a hearing which he attended it was developed that the city of Philadelphia had spent for re-copying 2,000 records?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, that is perfectly true, I almost agree with the investigating committee, but I do not like to hear the city of Philadelphia being called a bankrupt city.

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 949, as follows:

An Act authorizing the Governor to appoint a commission to make studies in respect to the employment of persons over the age of fifty years and making an appropriation

Whereas a large group of employable men are over the age of fifty years and when these men lose employment it is difficult for them to regain employment because they increase compensation hazards since they are more likely to be injured and their recovery is slower and

Whereas this condition will continue to increase as the span of life if lengthened due to the efforts of medical science and

Whereas these men are usually dependable and have families but many have been unable to accumulate sufficient savings for their declining years and

Whereas a physical and mental deterioration occurs in the unemployed of this type so that they soon become unfitted for work and

Whereas it is the duty of Government to find work for this group of employables therefore

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That a commission is hereby created which shall consist of nine persons to be appointed by the Governor One member of said commission shall be a member of the Senate one a member of the House of Representatives one a member of the Bar one a doctor of medicine one an employer of labor one a worker one a person engaged in welfare work one a person concerned with the administration of workmen's compensation and one an economist

The members of the commission shall organize at the call of the Governor by electing a chairman vice chairman and secretary

Section 2 The members of the commission shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for all expenses incurred in the performance of their duties The commission may appoint such clerks and assistants as it deems necessary to carry on its work and fix their compensation

Section 3 It shall be the duty of said commission to ascertain ways and means for the employment of persons over fifty years of age without throwing an undue liability on employers for the reeducation of such persons for suitable employment for the development of mature age occupations for the ascertainment of methods to reduce compensation premiums on employers of such persons and to make such studies in connection with said subjects and others related thereto as are deemed advisable to the commission The commission shall make a printed report to the legislature not later than the first day of February one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine which shall contain its recommendations and such drafts of legislation as it deems proper for the General Assembly to adopt

Section 4 The sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to the commission for the payment of the expenses of the members of the commission and the compensation of its clerks and assistants for postage telegraph and telephone charges for supplies for compiling and printing a report and for all other expenses deemed proper to the commission
